It may be that there are no more local conflicts. Every significant fight has the potential for ideological interests, supply chains and consequences that spread around the world. That makes these times extremely dangerous. Pipelines running between North Korea, Iran, Russia and China need to be watched, analyzed and confronted by the free world.

Join Amb. Haim Koren, Israeli diplomat and former ambassador to Egypt and South Sudan, along with Amb. Joseph DeTrani, former U.S. envoy to the six-party talks and Dr. Alexandre Mansourov, professor of security studies at Georgetown, as they examine the Middle East in the context of conflicting interests in Europe and the Indo-Pacific.
