

WFWP USA: Awakened Voices Awaken the World - Be Part of It

This year, we honored over 60 remarkable women at local and virtual HerStory Awards. These awards recognize women not just for their achievements, but for the courage and resilience they embody as they forge a brighter future for us all.

The HerStory Award celebrates women who break through barriers, redefine norms, and inspire future generations to aim higher. Each woman we honor has answered a deep calling to lead, often without recognition or support. Yet, with each step, she reshapes our world for the better.

These are not just women of strength—they are women of vision, dedication, and compassion. They are, as another awardee beautifully put it, those who strive to “be the light and the voice and to remind others that every challenge is not the end but a beginning to a new and beautiful journey.”

Our work is not just to celebrate these leaders but to amplify their voices so they can inspire and empower others. We believe that by honoring their stories, we build a network of strength that reaches far beyond a single award. Every voice we lift up creates a ripple, awakening even more women to their potential and inspiring communities around them.

Today, we ask for your help to keep these voices strong and to awaken even more. Every donation you make fuels our mission to recognize, uplift, and support women leaders. Together, we can expand the reach of the HerStory Awards and inspire more women to step into their power, regardless of where they come from or what obstacles they face.
