The Washington Brief webcast
Rising Global Tensions
A European perspective
Tuesday, July 1, 2025 from 2 to 3 PM EDT

How is Europe coping with the growing number of crises on the world stage? Both on its own and alongside the U.S. presence. Is there any kind of growing consensus on China's ambitions, among the varied perspectives of Europe? The Russia-Ukraine conflict is taking place next door within Europe. And the Middle East remains a fragile tinderbox.

Join leading Italian sinologist and global affairs commentator Francesco Sisci, founder of Rome's Appia Institute, as we dive deeply into the prevailing winds of European thought. Joining him on our panel will be moderator and former six-party talks envoy Amb. Joseph DeTrani and Georgetown University Security Studies professor Dr. Alexandre Mansourov.
