

Belvedere Family Community: Fall Fest This Weekend - Rain Plan Update

Justin Okamoto
October 9, 2025

Fall Fest is almost here! Even though rain is expected this weekend, the celebration will still go on - rain or shine!

All vendors and activities will now be set up around the Training Center to keep everyone dry and comfortable. You can still look forward to food, music, games, and the same festive spirit - just in a cozier, indoor setting!

Thank you for your understanding and flexibility as we adapt to the weather. We can't wait to celebrate together and make this Fall Fest a warm and joyful gathering.

Our Core Values

Love and Compassion

We believe that love is the foundation of everything. Through acts of kindness, empathy, and forgiveness, we create an environment where people feel valued, respected, and safe. Compassion moves us to support one another during difficult times and celebrate each other's victories. Our goal is to reflect the heart of God in the way we treat every person we encounter.

Unity in Diversity

Our community welcomes individuals from all backgrounds, cultures, and walks of life. We see diversity as a strength—a beautiful expression of God's creativity. By learning from one another and respecting our unique stories, we build bridges of understanding. True unity doesn't mean being the same; it means walking together with shared purpose and mutual respect.

Ongoing Spiritual Growth

Spiritual growth is a lifelong journey. We encourage each member to explore their faith deeply and authentically through study, prayer, and community involvement. Growth means being open to change, learning from mistakes, and continually seeking a closer relationship with God. Our community provides opportunities for reflection, mentorship, and personal development.

The Divine Principle is a teaching that bridges faith, culture, race, and nationality, bringing individuals, families, and generations together to build a world of Peace.
