November 3, 2022

Dear Up and Coming Family,

I hope everyone had fun last Saturday at the Halloween party! All photos from the event will be uploaded on our Up and Coming Facebook page later this week, so be sure to give us a follow there!

This Saturday November 5th, 2022, we will not have Up and Coming! Instead we will be trying something new and designate the first Saturday of the month to Family Day! We want Participants to actively spend time and coordinate activities with their families. This will be a great way to practice everything we learn at Up and Coming. Up and Coming Participants who snap a picture of their families hanging out/spending time together, and send it to us, will be automatically entered in a raffle to win free movie tickets for the whole family!

Up and Coming Brothers and Sisters Night!!!

We are also excited to announce that we will be having our Brothers and Sisters night in the next couple of weeks! This is an amazing opportunity for participants to come together and create a close bonding experience with one another. More details can be found below. Brother's and Sister's Night will follow into the regular Up and Coming schedule.
