CheonBo Survey Reminder

---

Dear couples who are aiming for CheonBo,

We wanted to check in on the current situation of couples who are working towards becoming CheonBo and to do so, we have conducted a survey. If you haven't submitted your survey sheet yet, you may do so during the next Sunday Service.

For those who haven't had the chance to take the survey yet, it will be available at the next Sunday Service. However, if you are unable to attend, please print out the attached survey sheet, complete it, and send it to me via email.

The lottery draws will be held on Sunday, February 26th during the Sunday Service.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Ed and Haru Nakai
