Multiculturalism and Islam; The Dark Side of Medicine

Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O Lord, God of hosts. Jeremiah 15:16

At that time, I couldn't shout "Mansei." Everyone else was so happy because they had been liberated, but even though I wanted to raise my hands with them, my hands just wouldn't go up. Everyone else was dancing joyously on August 15, but I was in a tiny room praying in tears.

I was tortured a lot by the Japanese, but when the war ended, I gathered all those of my friends who were planning to take revenge on the special police agents who had tortured them and said, "The Japanese have lost the war and are really in a wretched state. God will punish those who beat people; they have lost sovereignty over Korea and are begging on bended knee for forgiveness." I also quietly called some Japanese who was being pursued in Korea and helped them pack their bags saying, "Go home quickly, before you are tortured." Nineteen forty-five was a very happy year for the Koreans, but it wasn't for the Japanese, who had lost the war; for them it was a sad year. We need a day on which all the people of the world can rejoice together.

Hello,

I (Richard Panzer) was asked to give the sermon at the Sunday Service and began with a report on Hyung Jin Nim's activities in Taiwan. As Communist China has been threatening to invade Taiwan and has conducted military exercises around the island, we definitely should pray for his safety and success in his ministry to advance the liberation of the 1.4 billion people in Communist China.

Hyung Jin Nim recently completed a painting titled "The Love That Sheds Tears of Blood!" He explained, "This piece is expressing the moment where Jesus and our True Father called our True Mother, Kang Hyunshil, to go leave everything and to seek out His son and His Three Generational Kingship. I also read Father's words about his life in the Hungnam prison during 1948-50:

The times I would collapse from torture were the moments I could hear the voice of God. The times my life seemed on the verge of coming to an end were the moments I could meet God. You may not be able to imagine the profound background to this truth, or the deep valleys and dark tunnels that had to be traveled before this truth of the Unification Church could be revealed. I know that it was a situation where someone might ask, Hey, Rev. Moon! How did you ever get this far?

I was not beaten for my own sake but for the sake of the nation. The tears I shed were the tears of the indemnity paid so that I could shoulder the pain of the nation. The circumstances called for me to shout, You rascal! To Satan's face, to face the substantial manifestation of Satan and shout, Go ahead. Hit me. Hit me! When the time comes, I will repay you at least sevenfold. Right now, you are giving me the material I will need to do that. Even as I was being put in the place of torture, I was telling them to go ahead and hit me.

Beneath my clothing, I have scars in several places that I acquired after I took up this way of life. When I see these, I think of them as medals given me by humanity and by Heaven.

The scars remind me: Have you forgotten the pledge you made? Have you forgotten how you pledged to follow this path at the risk of your life until you die? Each time I see these, whether it's in the morning, noon or evening, I rededicate myself. I tell myself, Because you've been given these scars, you have to win. I encourage myself toward victory.

I still cannot forget how the members who remained in Pyongyang waved good-bye as I was taken away. I shed no tears, but they were all weeping. It was not as if a child were dying or a husband leaving home never to return. I could see them sniffing and wiping away tears. How tragic that was! As I watched that scene, I felt that a person who goes in search of Heaven is never abjectly unhappy.

MKR #19- The DARK SIDE of MEDICINE

I then read Father's words with a selection on the bombing of Hungnam fertilizer factory by 47 American B-29 bombers on August 1, 1950:

On August 1, 1950, a heavy bombing attack was carried out with B-29 bombers on the Hungnam fertilizer factory.1 Not only did I foresee this attack but I also knew and explained to those close to me that God would protect anyone who stayed within twelve meters of me. I was meditating calmly amidst all of the heavy bombing. It did not bother me at all. I was concentrated on the ideal world that awaited us in the future. I knew that for God, sending a person with a providential mission like mine to the spirit world at that point would amount to a loss of cosmic proportions. God was willing to pay any price to protect me. In fact, He had no other choice.

Such were my thoughts while those around me were worried and their facial expressions got ever tighter. In the midst of explosions ripping through the Hungnam factory, people were shouting that they were going to die. That was the situation I was in... Oh well...Death did not concern me at all.

I concluded by reading from the words of Hyung Shil Kang, the first full time member in South Korea, whom Father called "the mother of the Unification Church." At the age of 90, she risked everything to come to the U.S. to support True Father's anointed heir, Hyung Jin Nim.

"Without the heart of gratitude, we cannot endure forever. Without that heart of gratitude, God cannot be present with us. So, as we endure, we have a goal before us and we have to go through a certain time period and process in order to accomplish that goal. When we continue to endure day and after day, always keeping the goal in mind, in the end we can receive the fruit of victory."
