Communist/Islamist Alliance to Undermine the West

Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiprah and the other Puah, "When you serve as midwife to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him, but if it is a daughter, she shall live." But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. Exodus 1:15-17

You must know my secret, the secret of the Unification Church. From the very beginning of my ministry I was attacked and attacked and attacked, but I never faltered, never completely gave up, and in the end I always won and prospered. This has been the history of God and the history of the Unification Church. The Bible says that the ones who are patient to the last shall be victorious. Not just one person came against me; not just one nation came against me, and not just this world came against me. In the course of my ministry, the entire spirit world has come against me, and at one point even God came against me and said, "I don't know you."

Even God tested me, but I withstood to the last, surviving even the test of God. Then God surrendered and said, "This is my son to whom I can leave my entire kingdom." God and I made a covenant. God said, "You are the son I have been seeking, the one who can begin my eternal history. Now you are here." And I said, "I have been searching for you, and finally I can know that you are my father in heaven, and I am your own son." Our covenant as father and son was made. Sun Myung Moon, Today In the Light of Dispensational History, February 23, 1977

Hello,

Richard Panzer started the service at the Newfoundland Sanctuary Church by showing some of the latest artwork by the 2nd King, including one of a pouncing tiger and another of a white dragon. Before True Father's birth, spiritualists told his mother they'd had dreams of 6 white dragons.

He then explained that the theme of his sermon was "The Victors who obey the Voice of Conscience," and discussed the passage in Exodus 1 where the pharaoh instructed the midwives for the Hebrews to kill male babies, but two of them "feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live," risking their lives to save innocent human lives.

Of course, one of the male babies who was saved grew up to become the figure known as Moses, the liberator of the Israelites and author of the Torah, the first five books of the Hebrew Bible aka Old Testament. It could be said that the Judeo-Christian civilization of ethical monotheism that we live in was made possible by an act of resistance against genocide by two humble women, who risked their lives to save male Hebrew babies. That is why it's important for each of us to remember that the Kingdom of God and His providence unfold through countless acts of courage, faith, and love by the great and the small.

To save her son's life, Moses' mother placed him in a basket to float down the Nile. He was found by servants of the daughter of the Pharaoh, who raised him as a prince of the Egyptian empire. When he saw an Egyptian task master beating an Israeli slave, he killed him. After finding out that the Pharaoh knew about his actions, he was forced to escape to the desert in Midian.

This piece depicts the holy birth of True Father where his mother had the dream with the two white Imperial dragons coming down from Heaven as a sign and harbinger of the Returning Lord, Maitreya Buddha, Mahdi, The Righteous One, being born.

Instead of engaging in self-pity about the loss of his position in Egypt, Moses defended 7 young women in Midian from the local bullies. This led to him marrying the eldest daughter. It was while watching over the flock of his father-in-law, that he saw the burning bush on Mount Sinai and had an encounter with the angel of the Lord.

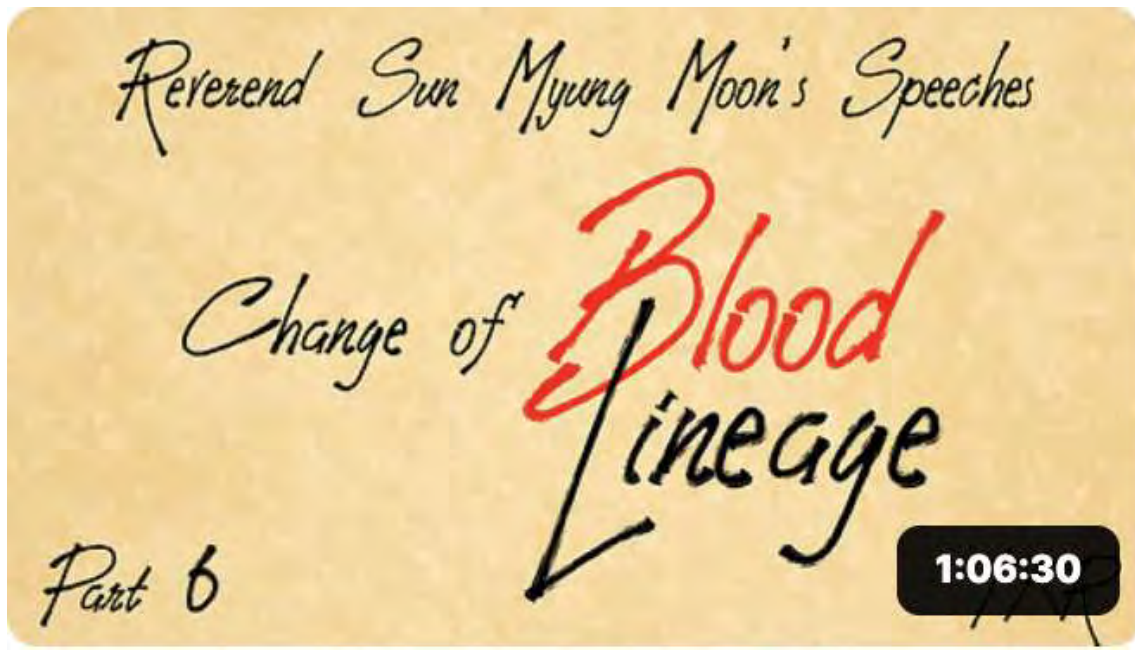

We know that despite Moses' arguments that he was unqualified, he ended up obeying God's directions to return to Egypt and to bring his people out of bondage. We can see that God often uses those who do not think they are the best, or the smartest, or the bravest, do His will.

He then discussed the ten commandments. The Hebrew verb in the 3rd commandment, Tisa, means "carry." The commandment, therefore, reads, "Do not carry God's name in vain." Who carries God's name in vain? Any person who claims to be acting in God's name while doing the opposite of what God wants is engaging in evil.

The Old Testament did not ban slavery, but it did ban the slave trade. In Exodus 21: 16 it says:

Whoever steals a man and sells him, and anyone found in possession of him, shall be put to death.

Nearly 3,000 years later, Christians, who were avid readers of the Bible led the struggle to ban the slave trade worldwide and to end slavery itself.

He then spoke about the reality of slavery in our own time and in particular the resistance to totalitarian Communism by the Christian West after World War 2. This resistance took place even though there were Communists working inside the British government and the U.S. State Department who actively helped the Soviet Union in many ways, including giving them nuclear weapons technology.

All Unificationists know that the UN Forces led by U.S. General Douglas MacArthur were mobilized to push back the Communist takeover of Korea, which led to the liberation of a pastor named Sun Myung Moon from the Hungnam death camp in 1950. More than 36,000 American soldiers died to liberate the southern half of Korea from Communism.

In the 1970s and 1980s, Father gave many speeches to warn America about the threat of international Communism. He must be very proud looking down from the spirit world to see his youngest son, Hyung Jin Nim, calling for the liberation of the 1.4 billion Chinese people. That of course would soon lead to the liberation of 26 million North Koreans, suffering from the most oppressive regime in the world.

He gave an example of what it's like to live in a Communist country like North Korea, and showed a news article about a 22 year-old North Korean who was executed for watching South Korean movies and listening to SK pop songs.

True Father also warned about the threat to the free world posed by radical Islam. In 1965, he met with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He warned President Eisenhower that:

The Communist Party uses its entire means to make an effort to work together with the Islamic realm. When Communism declines, then the Communist world would definitely rise up again, with the cooperation of the Islamic world, against the democratic world.

Even though the democratic world would triumph over the Communist world, Communism would cooperate with the Islamic world. You have to understand that now; the Soviets are in cooperation with the Islamic world... to invade the democratic world. America is withdrawing from the attack. The Satanic side is becoming one and is trying to swallow the democratic world. The democratic world is not taking this seriously.

Richard gave several examples about how women and girls are treated in several Muslim nations and even in the United Kingdom. Islam and Christianity have different views about the rights of women. In many Muslim countries if a woman reports that she was raped, it is likely that she, not the rapist, will be stoned to death.

The lives and teachings of Jesus Christ and Mohammed were radically different. Radical Islam and Communists want to destroy the Judeo-Christian civilization of the West. It is shocking to know that billionaires in the West are also partnering with them to replace our freedoms with a globalist tyranny.

Communism and radical Islam pose a threat to freedom, justice and peace in the world. But this is being assisted by the corruption and infiltration of many institutions in the West.

As Father taught and showed us, in one way or another, all of us will be tested in our lives of faith. This is evidence of God's love for us, that He believes in our ability to overcome and that He wants to give us a crown of glory as victorious sons and daughters who have the right to reign as Kings and Queens in His Kingdom.
