The Saint of Hungnam

"You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment.' But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be liable to the hell of fire. So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:21-26

If someone asks what your wife's race is, what's going to be your answer? The answer is "love race." We are creating a new race. I have named it the love race. The color of your skin is love color. When you talk about this love race, fighting men will stop and enjoy peace. Fighting children will stop and enjoy peace. And any kind of confrontation, squabble, fight or hatred will melt away. The love race is like the judge of the world.

From this time on, you are holy creatures, you are holy beings. You have to separate yourself from anything ungodly. You must feel that you are a holy temple in your thoughts and actions. When priests enter into their ceremonial place, there is only one route to go. There is no deviation, no shortcut.

Unless you have a foundation of gratitude, you have no way to link yourselves to God and the heavenly kingdom. The foundation of gratitude is the key upon which everything will blossom. Sun Myung Moon, The Engagement and Holy Wine Ceremonies, May 13, 1979

Hello,

Regis Hanna started the sermon by discussing how 2 Samuel 21 shows the reality of blood feuds and endless wars in the ancient world. This is the internal problem of hatred that Christ came to solve. The advancement of God's providence takes place through our individual Portion of Responsibility involving our voluntary, conscious, and creative effort.

There's a lot of talk about making America healthy again, but what about our spiritual health? Father spoke to us about this in the Belvedere garage for many, many hours.

How do we grow spiritually? When we make effort, it becomes easier to pray, and to listen to True Father's words. Our physical body is a machine- used to harvest vitality elements through our actions. That can lead to a transforming of our spirit where we are walking and talking with God, feeling skin touch with God, experiencing God in the Creation.

As Father said (CSG 1883), the highest place in heaven is found for those who have gone to the deepest, most suffering place.

50+ HOURS EXHAUSTING GIANT PIECE (Queen helped me lots with color coordination)!

This piece depicts the holy birth of True Father where his mother had the dream with the two white Imperial dragons coming down from Heaven as a sign and harbinger of the Returning Lord, Maitreya Buddha, Mahdi, The Righteous One, being born.

The goal is to have a grateful heart with no complaint. Once in the spirit world it's harder to grow spiritually. There you have to find someone on earth to influence towards the good.

In Matt 5:21-26, Jesus taught that carrying unresolved resentments to the spirit world will lead to harsh judgments in the afterlife. As he said, "you shall not get out until you have paid the last penny." God forgave us, but there are other parties we have debts to we should take care of.

Jesus never gave up even if his life was sacrificed. What was True Father's life like. He chose to sleep next to the "honey buckets" in the Heungnam prison. When it was bitter cold, he prayed "make it colder!" Someone Father didn't even know wrote a book "The Saint of Heungnam."

He never saw himself as a victim. Be transformed by the renewing of your mind. He finished by playing a video of Father speaking of the God of Day and God of Night. Get to know people you don't know or like very much. True Father wanted to make us saints.
