How many of you prayed for Donald Fraser?

"This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us." 1 John 3:16

Love exists only when there is someone to love and someone to be loved by. An ideal needs to be shared with someone. Love and ideals come alive as soon as there is a reciprocal and complementary relationship of give and take established. We are in the position of the object and always need someone to be in the subject position. Love and ideals will bud and blossom into full flower only when two elements are in a subject-object relationship.

Is man the cause, the source of his universe, or did someone create us? How can man be the cause of the universe when he does not even create himself? It is obvious that we are resultant beings. We are the products of some cause. Therefore, a subject or cause must exist. There must be a cause for man's existence. This subject, or cause, then is the essential reality. We should be as certain of this as we are of our own existence. Whatever name you choose for that cause doesn't matter. The most important thing is that he is there. And we call him, "God."

Let us put our question to God. "What is the most precious thing to you, God?" His reply will be no different from your answer and mine. God will answer, "Love, life, and my ideal are the most precious things to me." SMM, "God's Hope for Man," October 20, 1973.

Hello,

Kerry Williams, Education Director for Sanctuary USA, gave the sermon on Resurrection Sunday. Jesus was mocked and ridiculed on Good Friday. He prayed, "forgive them for they know not what they do." The disciples were scattered and confused, but he rose on Sunday, appearing to those who loved him. Although we know that the path of crucifixion was not Christ's original purpose, we must never forget that it demonstrated his absolute willingness to love fallen mankind. As stated in 1 John 3:16, "This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us."

Jesus spoke about building the Kingdom of Heaven 126 times. He spoke about the crucifixion just 3 times.

In a speech Father gave in 1973, "God's Hope for Man," (10/20/1973), he said

Jesus Christ was lord over all life because of his unparalleled form of loving, giving and sacrifice. He remains the Lord forever!" In dozens of speeches he gave in the 1950s and 1960s he poured out his heart to his disciples, calling them to a deeper relationship with Jesus, like a bride attends her bridegroom.

When we come before Christ, what happens? We see our sin and our darkness, but then we see His light. Kerry remembers about Father speaking in the New Yorker Grand Ballroom. A top leader confessed his sin publicly, but Father only shed tears.

Father prayed for his torturers. Democrat congressman Donald Fraser accused Sun Myung Moon and the Unification Church of being a tool of the Korean CIA. The day Father was vindicated. He asked, "how many of you prayed for Donald Fraser?" The most significant is the resurrection of his principle and unconditional love.

The light of Christ revealed the nature of True Adam. The word of God is our light. Ever since the Fall, God has been working to bring His dead son back to life.

Kerry then showed a music video by Sufjan Stevens, "To Be Alone with You," which is about spending time and developing a relationship with Jesus.

We are forgiven and saved by Jesus' love and sacrifice. The next step is when we realize we must live as Jesus did. As stated in 1 John 2:3-6, "We know that we have come to know him if we keep his commands... whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did." Living out our salvation means preparing for the Kingdom!

God is a God of Increase. As stated in Psalm 115:14, "The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children." What is the way to "increase?" As True Father taught, it is to practice "true love" and to create a community where everyone can contribute. The church is a body, not an audience. As stated in Romans 12:4-6, there is one body with many members. All parts must function for the body to live!

But training is important. As stated in Hebrews 12:11-12, no discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, though, it produces a harvest of righteousness. Jesus taught he did not come to be served, but to serve. He is the model for our lives.

Protecting freedom is not about politics. First, it's about preserving our ability to live out our faith without compromise. God's Kingdom does not come by itself, it is built by the efforts of disciples taking responsibility through the prompting of the Holy Spirit. We can't change people, but God can.

Every person has a ministry, no matter how small it might seem. According to a successful Wall Street banker, the high point of his week was coming early on Sunday mornings to fold the church bulletins.

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
