Greetings!

Have you ever dreamed of making your own movies? Learn the art, aesthetics and techniques of non-fiction filmmaking this summer at Barrytown College! You have your choice of the entire 4 week Institute, July 7 - August 1, or one of the four 5 day media intensives, led by Peter Van Geldern, adjunct Media Arts instructor at Barrytown College.

Peter van Geldern

Week 1: "The Art of Storytelling" - Generating ideas/ preproduction and planning/ production 101/ Cinematography - with guest instructor Simon Kinney

Week 2: "Finding the Juice" - how the camera catches life/exploring the interview process/ working behind and in front of the camera - with guest instructor Kevin Pickard

Week 3: "The Shoot" - how to direct and shoot, manage time, media and people effectively - with acting coach Lena Yasutake

Week 4: "Tell Your Story" - skills of post-production, how to launch and promote your project - with guest instructor Eric Wenzel

Under the guidance of experienced educators and media professionals (such as Jae Malabunga, at right), students will create a variety of inspirational and educational videos. Here are what last year's participants said about their experience at the Summer Media Institute:

"Barrytown's Summer Media Institute gave me another vision as to what I could possibly be doing with my life...I like the type of person it takes to create a documentary. It's a powerful medium to reach people, so it gave me insight into what it takes and how I could possibly fit into that."

"When you're behind the scenes, you see all the effort that goes in. I am proud of the videos we made."

"I learned so much about myself. It was more than I expected. It inspired me to pursue a career as a filmmaker."

Media Institute students will learn writing, directing, cinematography and editing techniques while working together in teams to create their own short videos. The program can be taken for academic credit towards a Bachelor of Arts degree or just for the sake of developing one's skills. (Federal student loans can cover the cost of attendance for those who are qualified.)
