

God's Gamble on the U.S.

Richard A. Panzer

November 7, 2016

World Peace and Unification Sanctuary - USA

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others: "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank thee that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18: 9-14

Our lifetime is but a moment. This lifetime will determine whether we are connected to eternity or to the moment. If the current lifestyle is extended, it could go on indefinitely. On the other hand, if it is broken, from that point on a new heaven and earth unfolds.
CSG 703

Greetings! ,

Before I share about Hyung Jin Nim's powerful Sunday message on "The Kingdom of the King" and Korean Sanctuary leader Rev. Sang Yeol Lee's report on the Family Federation's response to the spirit messages received by Kim Young Soon, I'd like to discuss the topic of "God's Gamble."

I have been reflecting in recent weeks on why Father spent a significant amount of time in casinos in Atlantic City, Las Vegas, etc., not just watching but gambling himself. It would be easy to wonder if this as a risky waste of time and resources since these places are full of the glorification of money, luxury, fallen sex, prostitution, etc. but I think that would be a mistake.

To be brief, I think Father was gambling, but not just for money. Since the respected leaders in the Abel camp failed to unite with him, I think he decided to find a leader in the Satanic camp. I think he was gambling for a king in the satanic world to stand up for God's will.

Fast forward to 2015 and 2016 when a well-known casino owner/reality TV celebrity named Donald Trump not known for personal piety runs for president and trounces governors, U.S. senators and other respected candidates running for the nomination using "trash talk" and other tactics more suited to the World Wrestling Federation than to the discourse of a typical Republican primary campaign.

A close friend told me of his recent terrifying vision of the U.S. Capitol building being lifted up into the air. He's not the only one receiving the message that God's judgment of America, and especially its "leaders," is imminent.

Whether Trump, the "King of the Deal," will be used by God as was the Persian King Cyrus, a pagan leader who is described as an anointed "messiah" who liberated the Chosen People from their oppression in Babylon remains to be seen. Which is a good bet - 1) that this country will remain a strong and influential defender of religious freedom and the sovereign rights of its citizens or 2) that self-serving leaders will continue to profit from its decline?

To keep this to the point, Father, like God, was/is the King of Gamblers. After all, isn't the idea that the human race can be restored from its countless entanglements with Satan the biggest gamble of all?

In his sermon on "The Kingdom of the King," Hyung Jin Nim pointed out that Jesus words in Luke 17:21 "Behold, the kingdom of God is within you" can be misused to lead to self-worship. Positive psychology books talk about the power of attraction. They want to separate the Kingdom from the King, where you put yourself at the center. The kingdom of God is only within us if we have Christ at the center of our hearts. Without the King, there is no Kingdom.

The Kingdom of the King - November 6, 2016

Before the Ancestor Liberation ceremony, Hyung Jin Nim had a spiritual battle. He saw an image of Baphomet attacking him and saying that he would kill his children, especially his youngest. Hyung Jin Nim kept his youngest son home for several days, but knew that there was a good reason for Satan to be angry, given the liberation of countless spirits of the unborn on October 30.

Sang Yeol Lee

Rev. Lee, the Unification Sanctuary leader in Korea, reported on the Family Federation's response to Kim Young Soon's spirit world messages received from True Father (see below) and Mother's mother, Dae Mo/Hong Song Ae, that Mother is going the wrong way, claiming that she, not Father, is the Messiah. She has left her position as wife of the Messiah. Her understanding of Only Begotten Daughter is wrong. She is nothing more than the wife of the Messiah, but leaders of the Family Federation are just watching, instead of standing up for Father's truth.

Entire Message from Dae Mo Nim, Hong Soon-ae

In response to these messages, the Family Federation threatened to excommunicate Kim Young Soon, stating that Father would only appear to officially endorsed FFWPU clergy and instructing Kim Young Soon not to receive any more messages.

I wonder if they have sent this memo to Father in the Spirit World, telling him they do not approve of his message or the person he chose to receive them.

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard

Richard A. Panzer, Ph.D., President
World Peace and Unification Sanctuary - USA

A Message from the Spirit World by Dae Mo Nim, Hong Soon-ae Young Soon Kim - November 2016

Hello, all of you members! I am Dae Mo, Hoon Soon-ae. You, members in the physical world, have been greatly looking forward to my message, haven't you? I am very anxious about what to say first.

I am very sorry to True Mother, but I would like to disclose the facts conclusively; otherwise, you are unable to understand the reality of the spirit world. Please think of what pain I feel in my heart when I, as True Mother's mother, (Dae Mo) have to reveal these facts.

Members! You are well aware that if you don't live rightly, you will go to a bad place in the spirit world, aren't you? You also know well that the life in the spirit world is permanent and eternal, whereas the life in the physical world is really momentary, don't you? This is the greatest matter of all.

All of you members! How are you living your lives?

Members! I believe that you might have a rough idea of what the original life looks like through the life of the Messiah on earth. Peoples' lives deviating from the teachings of the Divine Principle are absolutely not relevant to and acceptable in the spirit world. Even if they are loving children of True Father, God cannot forgive them. That is what the heavenly principles (Heaven Laws) is all about, is it not?

Members! Who then is the person whom True Father loves most? It is True Mother, of course. Members! Yet I am sorry, but I have to say that True Mother is not living rightly now. True Mother is not who she was in the past, and she is now more than a little conceited and arrogant. Deviating much from the position of the Messiah's wife and rather priding herself as being "the Messiah," she is building up her own subjective works in the name of providence and altering the providential accomplishments and legacies True Father as the Messiah worked for in various areas. The True Mother of today is not the Messiah.

And it seems that there are many controversies over True Mother's being "the only-begotten daughter" in many respects, but certainly most of her interpretations concerning the issue of the only-begotten daughter are wrong. True Mother is just the wife of the Messiah. Both in the spirit world and in the physical world, she should not deviate from her position of being the Messiah's wife in terms of all providential works the Messiah carries out. Yet some leaders and elders who push forward with various plans around True Mother seem to merely comply with the reality of her deviating from her original position, without causing any unpleasantness. Where on earth is such a teaching in True Father's words, as well as in the Divine Principle?

Members! Facing and intuiting the reality of True Mother which has gone wrong, every member here in this spirit world deeply deploras it. Members in the physical world, what will you do about it? Do you want True Mother to leave from the upper level of the spirit world where True Father stays? That should never happen. This wrong reality on earth must be cleared in the physical world. If it is true that True Father in the spirit world is very concerned and worried about the reality of True Mother in the physical world, what will you do about it? Please ask yourself and each other and try to pray for yourself. Please clear off everything on earth in accordance with the voice from your original mind.

Tuesday, October 4, 2016

Dae Mo, Hong Soon-ae

Receiver: Kim Young-soon, a reporter for the spirit world (430 Couple)