The LORD God fashioned into a woman the rib which He had taken from the man, and brought her to the man. The man said, "This is now bone of my bones, And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Woman, Because she was taken out of Man." For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother, and be joined to his wife; and they shall become one flesh. Genesis 2:22-24

Lineage took a wrong turn from the misuse of the love organ. What is the meaning of the human fall? It is misuse of the love organ. Therefore, the lineage took a wrong turn. Without the fall, lineage and the love organ should have come directly from God.

God's attributes are eternal, absolute, unique and unchanging. Our lineage and love organs should be that way. That should be the organ God likes, not the one that Satan can interfere with and destroy. The human fall was the destruction of the lineage. The original lineage should have been a royal lineage, but now it is the lineage of butchers. That is why they are in opposite positions. Dear

Hyung Jin Nim started Sunday's service by talking about the husband-wife relationship. It's important for a couple to invest 90 minutes with each other each week, on a "date." Express 3 reasons for gratitude for each other. Wives who disrespect their husbands are destroying their marriage.

It's important to reminisce about your past and think about how that could lead to the growth of your kingdom. The InspiringPhilosophy.org videos on youtube offer deep study on Hebrew and Sumerian texts. Many pagan gods are portrayed as half human, half animal. Worshipping such "gods" leads you to become animal-like.

The Bible offers a very different view of life and relationships. Genesis 2:22-24 describes the first man and woman becoming one "flesh," what could be called a "comprehensive unity."

Natural Law is based on the idea that everything has a proper function. Good is tied to proper purpose and function. The purpose of our sexual organs is obviously reproduction. It also unites male and female into a "comprehensive unity" meaning mind, body, soul, and destiny. Homosexual relationships do not fulfill either purpose. People who are naturally un-fertile are not changing the original purpose and function.

The Temptations of Kingship (Sunday Service 12/8/19)

Animals will kill off the offspring of competing males. But we don't label them as evil, because they act by instinct and attachment, not moral choice.

Uncommitted males bring devastation on society. The children of single moms living with a boyfriend are

20 times more likely to be abused. Living together looks similar to marriage, but it is the opposite.

Marriage tames the violence and sexual aggressiveness of men. Immature men are prone to rampant violence and sexuality. Marriage brings male power to be used in service to family and community. A husband has moral accountability and responsibility to protect his wife, especially during pregnancy. It also leads women to be morally accountable to God and to her family.

It's important to be able to explain about these issues to young people, not just expect them to accept things by faith. Leftists don't want to engage with thoughtful theists or conservatives because the Leftist worldview is largely based on emotion.

We men as Kings in development have to be careful because there are women possessed of demonic spirits who want to seduce you and destroy you spiritually.

Jacob Frank, the 18th century Polish-Jewish religious leader promoted the Sabbatean heresy, which taught that enlightenment transcends good and evil. Really it's Satanism, which always leads to centralized power.

The Weather Underground terrorist group in the USA which began in 1969 wanted to overthrow government and create a Communist state. They spoke about the need to genocide the 20-30 million in America who would revolt.

Leftists talk about "my truth." No, there is truth and then there is falsehood. Many feminists have the attitude they don't want to have any children. It's very selfish not to pass on the gift of life to the next generation.

David got into trouble when he became King and stopped paying attention to God. If you become a prosperous King, don't forget to honor God and to serve others.

What the Han mother won't say on 12/28/2019

In last week's email, I wrote about Hak Ja Han's repeated statements that the first human ancestors fell because they "developed a heart of greed." I've been reflecting on the implications of her choice not to speak clearly about the sexual nature of the Fall. One Family Fed brother suggested that people could learn about such aspects of the Principle in advanced DP workshops. I guess that falls into the absurd strategy of hiding your secrets for an elite few.

Or some point out that THEY are teaching clearly about the Sexual Fall at local church centers and so they should, but what does it mean when the Only Begotten Daughter doesn't?

What does it mean when the Han Mother tells audiences at large public events that "greed" is the cause of the Fall? I was reflecting that the vast majority of those who welcomed True Parents in the USA over the past 4-5 decades were African Americans. Most of those attending Hak Ja Han's speech on December 28 in Newark, NJ will also likely be African Americans.

While some have done quite well, we all know that significant numbers of African Americans have been struggling. The American Left tells them that "the reason you are struggling and living in poverty is because the "1%" is greedy and not paying "their fair share."

This is comforting advice because it removes all responsibility, but does it really help anyone? I will be blunt: although black Americans comprise just 13.4% of the U.S. population, they account for more than one third (36%) of the abortions in the U.S. In New York City in 2015, more black children were aborted

than were born alive.

Those who successfully survive passing through the birth canal often have a challenging home situation. Three in four native-born Black children in the U.S. are born to unmarried mothers, who often depend on government welfare which is only given as long as there is no father in the home. (The rest of the population is not far behind, with Hispanics having a 57% unwed birth rate and whites at 30%.)

Volumes of research show that growing up without a committed father in the home is linked to much higher risks to live in poverty, to struggle in school, to have emotional and behavioral problems, to be arrested, to have or cause an unmarried pregnancy, etc.

Here is what I wish the Han Mother Would Say on December 28 when she speaks at the Prudential Center in Newark, NJ:

As my husband, Rev. Sun Myung Moon, taught throughout his life, by studying closely the Genesis story of Adam and Eve we can understand that the human fall was the result of the misuse of love, by an unprincipled sexual relationship when they were not mature. By violating God's commands to reserve sexual intimacy for marriage, the first human ancestors brought a curse on themselves and their descendants.

If you want to bring God's blessings to your family and your offspring, teach your children to save sex for marriage and of course do so yourselves. That will give them the best chance to do well in life and develop their in-born talents and genius.

But instead of honestly explaining about the sexual fall, which could help them to address their most serious (and America's most serious) challenge, she has been telling them that "greed" caused it. Instead of telling them the truth that could actually help them to understand, address and overcome their situation, she has been giving the convenient, "feel good" lie that other people are responsible for their problems.

This failure to be truthful is not a demonstration of compassion or love, it's an expression of contempt.

I sincerely hope that I am wrong and that she tells the truth on December 28. But I won't hold my breath.

Were Adam and Eve forerunners of Bonnie and Clyde?

No matter where a religion begins or what reason it has for beginning, the goal must be the same. The goal is to know God. The Creator, God, who is the Owner of the original universe, created the world and created a man and a woman to become our first ancestors. God gave them a special growth period, during which they were to learn how to take responsibility. Heaven's hope was for Adam and Eve to grow beautifully with absolute love and absolute obedience and to receive God's blessing to become the true parents of humankind. Unfortunately, during their growth period, Adam and Eve developed a heart of greed. That is what brought about the state of humankind today.
