BEIRUT / SAIDA, Lebanon - Representatives of the Heavenly Parents Holy Community and the Universal Peace Federation (UPF) participated in celebrations commemorating the birthday of Prophet Muhammad across Lebanon, strengthening interfaith ties and providing targeted humanitarian relief to local communities.

Strengthening Interfaith Partnerships in Beirut

On August 27, Regional Director Mr. and Mrs. Park, accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Ahmed and members of the Holy Community in Lebanon, attended the Prophet's birthday commemoration at the Al-Du'at Cultural and Social Association in Beirut.

This event marked the delegation's second visit to the organization. Al-Du'at Cultural and Social Association serves as a key Islamic civic and religious entity in Lebanon, focusing on community guidance, social solidarity, and advocacy for Islamic cultural affairs.

Celebrations and Humanitarian Outreach in Saida

Interfaith engagement continued on August 30 in Saida, where UPF Representatives Mr. and Mrs. Schellen attended a Prophet Muhammad birthday celebration hosted by Sheikh Sohayb. During the program, the couple was invited on stage to deliver a short speech emphasizing solidarity and mutual cooperation.

Addressing the severe economic challenges facing families across the region, UPF organized a relief distribution alongside the event. Due to the large turnout of approximately 1,000 attendees, food donation boxes were distributed to needy families via a raffle system. Recipients expressed profound gratitude for the practical support and message of unity during difficult times.
