Launch of Special Needs Ministry via Zoom Saturday 30th May at 4pm BST

For many years there have been questions around the issue of matching and blessing of special needs children (both Blessed Children and Jacob's Children), but there have been no clear guidelines so far.

Recently, a team of American and European brothers and sisters, most of them matching supporters, have put their hearts and heads together to create a curriculum to support our Special Needs families.

For many years we have been using the name "Treasures Of Heaven" ministry; however, this name meanwhile has been officially registered by another group. So, in order to avoid confusion, we will from now on refer to it as the "Special Needs Ministry" of the Heavenly Parent Community (SNM-HPC)

As we found it almost impossible to discern who would be embraced by the Special Needs ministry, because each situation is unique and deserves to be seen as such, we want to be as inclusive as possible and support families that deal with all kinds of issues, ranging from developmental delay, Down's Syndrome, Autism, mental disease, physical impairments, trauma, drug addiction, same sex attraction and other conditions.

ALL these families need and deserve our special attention and support! However, each family or young adult is free to decide for themselves if they want to connect with our team.

Restoration is an ongoing process, so we are aware that some issues may take years to be clarified, but at least we want to offer some guidelines on how to proceed.

To launch this initiative, we will host a Zoom conference, to which all interested Blessed Families of North America, Europe, Middle East, Russia and others are invited, on Saturday 30th May at 4pm UK time.
