

Hiking Workshop 2014

German HARP goes into nature

Bad Camberg, Germany, 1. June 2014

The hiking workshop, which took place on 28.05.-01.06., offered an opportunity for young people to walk through the region of Germany's Taunus and its fields and woodlands.

After having participated in the celebration of the Day of All True Things in Frankfurt's centre, 16 HARPies hit the trail on our 3 days walking tour. Starting from Frankfurt's Holy Ground, we climbed the misty Feldberg; barbecued at sunset; sang enthusiastically on our way to Camberg, Neumühle; and closed our adventurous journey on its sun-drenched Holy Ground. Despite our feet ache after having walked nearly 60km in total, and the lack of sleep due to the two cold nights under the starry sky, everyone felt it was worth it when in the end we were giving and getting massages, and eventually sitting around a bonfire.

Besides from enjoying God's creation and receiving joy through discovering nature's beauties, the workshop was supposed to give HARPies the chance to get to know each other better, since there was plenty of time to talk and be with one another, and furthermore concentrate on being sincere and living the moment based on this year's motto "Sincerity".

All in all, it was a special time which we gladly look back on and a project we would like to possibly repeat in the future.
