Dear Friend,

I have wonderful news! The Founder of Women's Federation for World Peace, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, will be coming to New York's Madison Square Garden for her first major U.S. appearance. It is a great honor to be able to hear directly from a true champion of peace, deeply committed to bringing all of humanity from division and pain, to a culture of heart, love, and peace.

At what will certainly be a once in a lifetime opportunity, Dr. Moon will share a spiritual message on our role at this critical point in history. As representatives of the melting pot of America, we hold a decisive role in establishing a unified culture of peace in the world, our communities, and families.

This message of peace will be further accompanied by a cultural celebration of music and dance, featuring Grammy award-winning artist Yolanda Adams and a 2,000-voice choir.

You do not want to miss out! Join us at Madison Square Garden on Saturday, July 15, 2017 at 2 PM. For tickets and event updates, visit MSGjuly15.org. Tickets are only $20 for an individual or $50 for a family.

We are proud to be able to share this invitation with you, and hope you and your families will join us for this significant occasion!

Warmest regards,

Angelika Selle

Vice President, Women's Federation for World Peace International
