

WFWP Japan Members Decided to Help By Making Hundreds of Facemasks

Yong Chon Song

May 18, 2020

In Japan, there have not been enough face masks to help protect residents from COVID-19. So a few WFWP Japan members decided to help by making hundreds of face masks.

The masks were then donated to a local city hall to help distribute to the community.

Here is a picture from a local newspaper that was touched by the local efforts.

