

Archbishop George Stallings whips around the world for ACLC

Tom Cutts

February 10, 2016

Archbishop George Stallings had a very busy week. On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, January 30th through February 1st, he was in London, England helping to establish the Association of British Clergy, a sister organization to the American Clergy Leadership Conference.

He returned home to Washington, D. C. on Tuesday, February 2nd and then caught a 4:30 a.m. train to New York Wednesday, February 3rd for the monthly leadership meeting with Dr. Ki Hoon Kim.

On Friday, February 5th, he flew to Toronto, Canada to be with Dr. Moon Shik Kim and the Universal Peace Federation.

He returned to Washington, D.C. on an overnight flight landing Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. in time to officiate the Birthday Celebration at Imani Temple at 10:30 a.m. that same day.

This week he flew 14 hours to Korea to participate in the Holy Day Celebrations at Chung Pyung with True Parents and brothers and sisters of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification.