

Free One Day Seminar: Witnessing to Ministers this weekend

Dan Stein
February 17, 2017

Brothers and sisters, learn how to teach the Principle in a special wonderful way, easily acceptable to ministers. Dan has had great success teaching DP to ministers in an "oh so certain way" that seems to succeed really well with clergy. Dan has a special touch in this area. We hope to do renewed great work with ministers in 2017 and ACLC, so this is very timely.

Rev. Stein has years of experience successfully teaching DP to ministers. He will share an approach of revealing the Principle in a way that ministers are receiving, and having experiences of the Holy Spirit. The seminar will include three presentations, and heartfelt sharing is encouraged among participants. Meals will be provided.

Apologies, the date is now last minute changed to SUNDAY 2/19 (changed to Sunday to accommodate Ray Mas's Seunghwa planned for Saturday.) Seminar is informal and even a small group will be rich experience. Lets us know if you're interested!
