

New England celebrates three Holy Days together in Boston Massachusetts

Miilhan Stephens
February 10, 2019

New England celebrated three Holy Days in one on February 10! Over 150 people from Maine, New Hampshire and the three Massachusetts communities joined in the celebration of Heavenly True Parent's Day, True Parents' Birthday and Foundation Day.

Sunday service began with many musical offerings. The Sunday sermon was given by Pastor Catherine Ono who touched on the significance and meaning of all three Holy Days with an emphasis on becoming people in the footsteps of True Parents who can leave a lasting impact in the hearts of everyone we meet as the foundation of being Heavenly Tribal Messiahs.

After service, everyone enjoyed a Korean dinner and celebration cake and goodies from the offering table for dessert. Following lunch was a Yute game, ping-pong tournament and a bean bag toss.