Adeline Winter Triggol, born to Jill and Nathan Triggol on January 3, 2025, graced this world with her presence for a brief but profoundly meaningful time. She passed away unexpectedly in her sleep on March 10, 2025.

Although her time with us was heartbreakingly short, Adeline left an indelible mark on her family, whose hearts she touched with her presence. Known for her sweet demeanor, Adeline always showed her affection through cuddling and wanting to be as close to mom and dad as possible. She was a known squirmer, and was always content getting out of the house on an adventure.

Nathan and Jill's last days with Adeline were filled with so much love. As a family they went to the zoo and Holliday Park. Jill nursed her in the bird watching room and felt so much peace and content with her in her arms.

Adeline is survived by her loving parents, Jill and Nathan Triggol, her older sister, Serena, her grandparents Jan Wood, Steve and Linda Young, John and Jeanette Triggol, and Kathleen Novotny, as well as many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins. Adeline was preceded in death by her grandmother, Linda Triggol, grandfather, David Novotny, and her aunts, Mikhail Wood and Alicia Young, great uncle Robert Wood, and great aunts Laura and Sherry.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to a GoFundMe page set up for the Triggol family: gofund.me/2e2f44af

Help Nathan and Jill Mourn Adeline

Tanya Triggol is organizing this fundraiser on behalf of Nathan Triggol.

Donation protected

Our brother Nathan and his wife Jill unexpectedly lost their 2 month old daughter, Adeline, in her sleep Sunday night. They are grieving the loss of their child at this time and could use financial support to pay for the memorial and bills while they are off work.

-Tanya Heuft, Jolin Witchger and the entire Triggol family

I will never forget meeting you in the hospital the day after you were born. You made the cutest monkey noises when I picked you up. You blessed our family from the minute you were born. We will love you forever.
