Please see the registration fee chart (fees are calculated at registration):

Shortly before the workshop we will send everyone registered a login ID and passwords to watch the workshop.

If your local church is hosting a local gathering, and they have space based on Covid guidelines, you may join there as well, but you will still need to register with the fee. The HJCBT Office will offer our name list at the prayer hall before the event begins, so it is important to register and offer the workshop fee to be included.
