

FFWPU USA Opportunity: Internship as Assistant to CARP LV Director

Alexa Sensini
October 21, 2022

This internship is a great opportunity for any college graduates who are considering taking on a ministry role, a public role in outreach organizations, a CARP Director, or anyone who wants to keep improving their spiritual leadership skills while needing some personal and intentional time. It's great opportunity to understand what it's like to be in a ministry role through being a resident assistant director: shadowing and working together with the CARP director, as well as leading witnessing and outreach efforts. Required to live at the CARP center located at a walking-distance from Cheon Shim Won in Las Vegas.

Job Type: a part/full-time position averaging 20-40 hours/week (hours are negotiable). Flexibility and solid time-management skill is a must to handle this position due to the nature of the work.

Location: Las Vegas, Nevada

Term: Spring Semester: Jan 1 - Mid-June 2023

Fall Semester: August to Dec (TBD)

Stipend: Room and board (CARP house standard), and basic mission-oriented expenses will be provided. Additional stipends are considered based on qualifications and experiences.
