

FFWPU USA: Give a Blessing Gift to the North American Couples

Naokimi Ushiroda
April 24, 2023

This year, couples will be connecting in person from across the nation and the world, not only for the Blessing Ceremony but for an extended weekend experience of prayer, reflection, bonding, and celebration.

Participating in Korea or Las Vegas is a significant financial and time investment for couples. The Blessing Offering is not enough to cover the cost of these events. Thus the BFM is reaching out to ask individuals, families, and communities to offer any financial amount they can towards this invaluable Blessing experience for all the couples and their families.

Thank you for anything you can give -- truly the Blessing culture is a culture we create together.

Give a Blessing Gift to the North American Couples

Dear Blessed Families & Communities,

As couples prepare for the upcoming Blessing in May, it evokes memories and emotions of their journey to this moment. It's a time for couples to pause from daily life to attend and receive Heavenly Parent's and True Parents' deep love and significance of the Hyojeong Cosmic Blessing.

Just as each couple's journey to the Blessing is unique, each Blessing Ceremony is as well.

In the past three years of covid restrictions, local communities went above and beyond to shower couples with love during their Blessing Ceremony.

This year, couples will experience community with each other. Connecting in person from across the nation and the world, not only for the Blessing Ceremony but for an extended weekend experience of prayer, reflection, bonding, and celebration.

Participating in Korea or Las Vegas is a significant financial and time investment for couples. The Blessing Offering is not enough to cover the cost of these events. Thus we're reaching out to ask individuals, families, and communities to offer any financial amount they can towards this invaluable Blessing experience for all the couples and their families.

Your donations will be pooled together to help cover the costs of Blessing participation in both Korea and Las Vegas.

Thank you for anything you can give, truly the Blessing culture is a culture we create together.

You can even type a personal message or congratulations to the couples.
