Shehaqua Performing Arts Workshop

Have you ever wanted to grow as an artist while connecting with other creative people who share your passion? The Shehaqua Music & Arts Workshop is an opportunity to do exactly that.

Over three inspiring days, we'll come together to learn from experienced guest artists, collaborate on creative projects, and explore music, visual arts, performance, and HyoJeong culture in a fun and encouraging environment. Whether you're an experienced performer or simply curious to explore your creativity, this workshop is designed to help you grow, build meaningful connections, and create something special together.

We'll spend time learning from our guest speakers, working alongside mentors, and collaborating in teams to prepare a final showcase that celebrates everything we've created throughout the workshop.

Come ready to learn, create, collaborate, and be inspired. We can't wait to see what we'll create together at the Taste of Shehaqua Performing Arts Experience in Spiceland, Indiana!
