October 2016 Update

Naokimi Ushiroda

November 2, 2016

Can you believe the end of the year is just 2 months away!?! Although it feels like the year has gone by so quickly, these next two months are sure to be filled with a spirit of gratitude, hope, and determination. Stay tuned for what else our students will accomplish in 2016.

In the October Update, we share about the Coaching and Mentoring Programs, International Service Exchange opportunities, upcoming local celebrations of CARP's 50th Anniversary (Boston!), team members moving on, and more.

Your thoughts and prayers mean so much to us and our young people.
Thank you!

October Highlights

Student Coaching

Are you a student or young person that is passionate about an idea or project to help others? Get the support and accountability to make an even greater impact in your community. Get a Coach!

Mentoring Program

Here are a few words from some of our participants, halfway through the semester program. Learn more at carplife.org/mentoring

"I don't think I've ever had this extensive of a mentor/mentee experience. I've been a group leader at camps but this structure gives me confidence in being a mentor in a consistent and meaningful way." - JH, 24, Mentor

"Taking a step back to reflect definitely helps me to move forward." - AB, 20, Mentee

"It's like talking to myself 10 years ago. It's exciting to see him realize the need for deeper meaning and purpose in what he does." - DS, 35, Mentor

Expanding the Team

This month we held a Board & Staff Retreat to create strategic plans for the upcoming year. We welcomed additional expertise to the Board to better serve our students across the country.

Goodbyes

Two members of our HQ team have moved on to new opportunities abroad, offering them further training as global citizens.

Meet the Staff: Justin

Over the past year, Justin has served as a CARP Student Coach.

Now, he's moving to Japan to fulfill his dream.

I'm...DONE

Our summer intern, Yeol-Shim, moved on from her experiences at CARP to attend an international service program, DONE.

Global Reports & Opportunities

International Exchange Trips!

We believe the best way to develop a heart for others is with practice. To be a global citizen, we must know our global family. So, we've prepared a few opportunities for students to serve this winter break.

For Internationals:
