Rom. 9:15~16

Rom. 9:21

Rom. 9:11

- Theological controversy over predestination has caused great confusion in the religious lives of many people.
- In the Bible, we find many passages which are often interpreted to mean that everything in human life comes to pass exactly as predestined by God.

Chapter 6 Predestination

Rom. 9:21
Rom. 9:11

Refute predestination

Gen. 2:17
Gen. 6:6
Matt. 7:7
Jam. 5:14

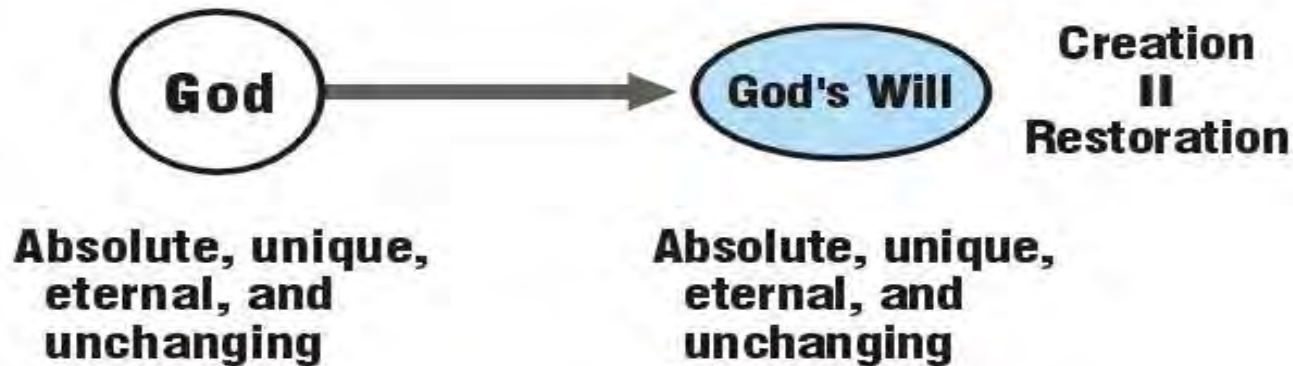

- Yet we can find sufficient evidence in the Bible to refute the doctrine of absolute predestination.
- How does the Divine Principle resolve this issue?

The predestination of God's Will

- God could not accomplish His purpose of creation due to the human Fall. Accordingly, God's Will in carrying out His providence for fallen humanity is still to accomplish the purpose of creation. In this sense, God's Will is that restoration be accomplished.

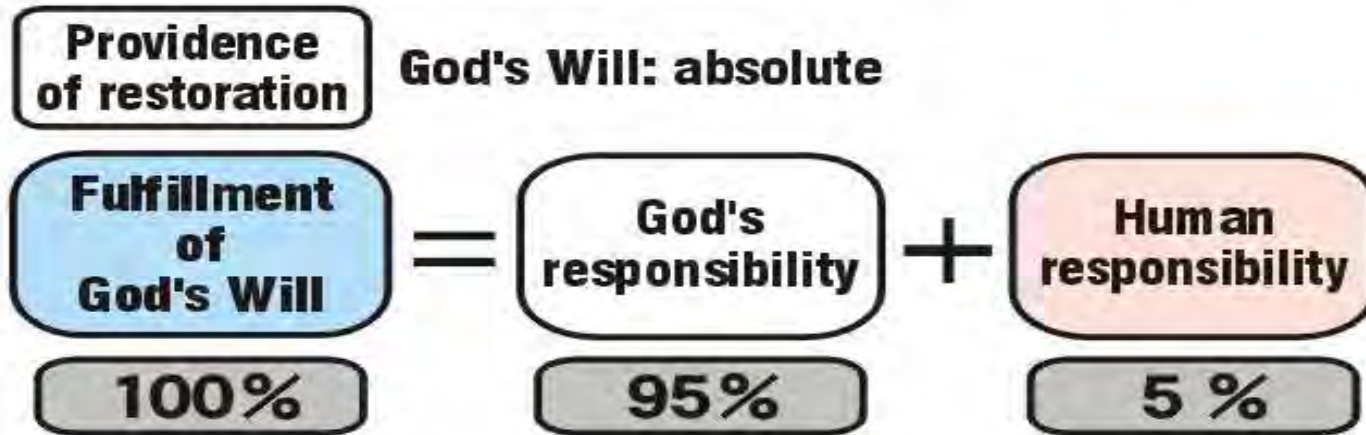

The predestination of God's Will

Predestination of God's Will : absolute

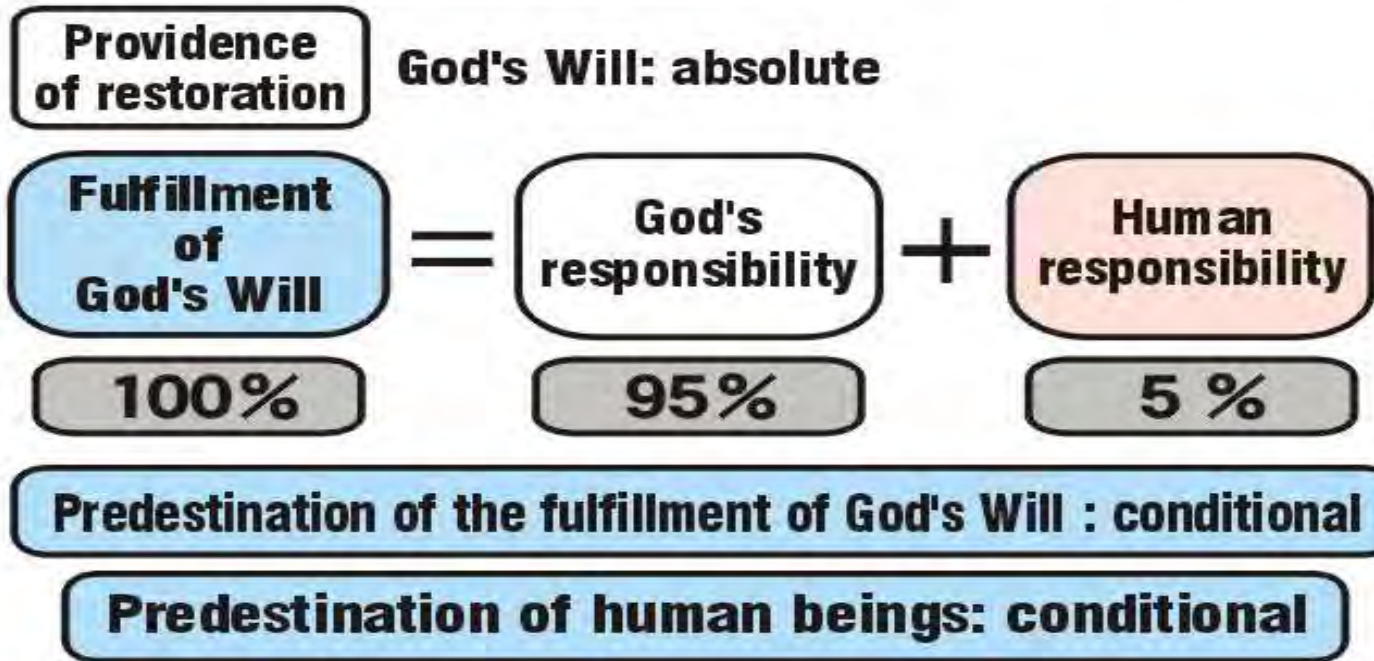

- God is the absolute, unique, eternal and unchanging Being; therefore, His Will must also be absolute, unique and unchanging.
- The predestination of God's Will is absolute.

The predestination of the fulfillment of God's Will and predestination of human beings

- Although God's Will of the providence of restoration is absolute and beyond human influence, its fulfillment necessarily requires the accomplishment of the human portion of responsibility.
- God predestines the process of its fulfillment conditionally, contingent upon the completion of the 5% human responsibility in addition to the 95% responsibility of God.

The predestination of the fulfillment of God's Will and predestination of human beings

- Therefore, the predestination of the fulfillment of God's Will is conditional.
- And the predestination of human beings is conditional.

Elucidation of verses which support absolute predestination

Rom. 8:29–30

- The book of Romans says: "Those whom He foreknew He also predestined . . . those whom He predestined He also called; and those whom He called He also justified; and those whom He justified He also glorified" (Rom. 8:29-30).

Elucidation of verses which support absolute predestination

Rom. 8:29–30

- Predestining and calling the person is God's responsibility, but only when the person completes his responsibility after being called by God, is he justified.
- Hence, God's predestination concerning an individual's glorification is thus contingent upon the fulfillment of his portion of responsibility.

Give and Take Action,
and the Four Position Foundation

Give and Receive Action

Through the agency of universal prime energy, the subject and object elements of every entity form a common base and enter into interaction.

This interaction, in turn, generates all the forces the entity needs for existence, multiplication and action.

Section 2
Universal Prime Energy,
Give and Take Action,
and the Four Position Foundation

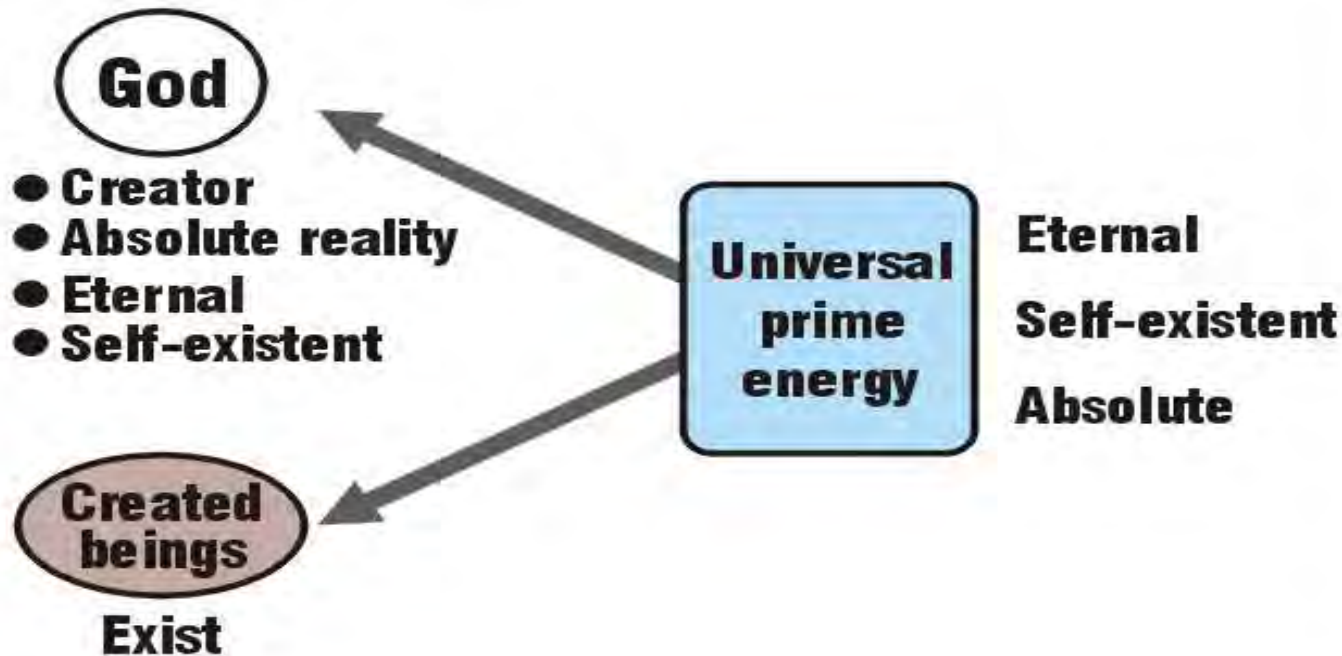

Give and Receive Action

The interaction generating these forces through this process is called give and receive action.

Universal prime energy and the forces generated by give and receive action are in a reciprocal relationship of cause and result, internal and external, and subject partner and object partner.

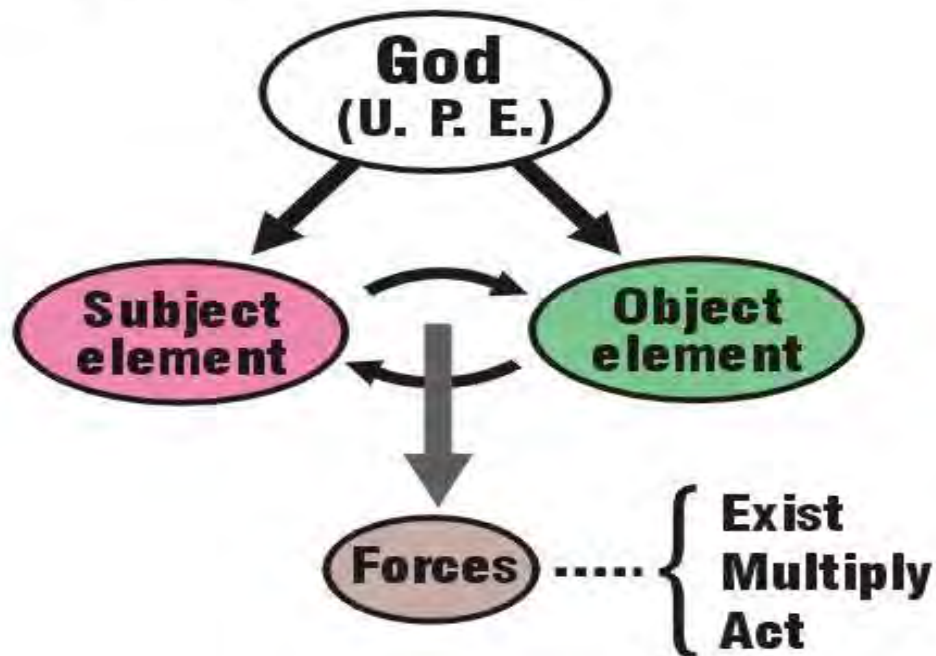

Universal prime energy is a vertical force, while the forces generated by give and receive action are horizontal forces.

Universal prime energy

- God, the Creator of all things, is the absolute reality, eternal, self-existent and transcendent of time and space. Universal prime energy is the fundamental energy of God's being.
- It is the origin of all energies and forces that allow created beings to exist.

Give and take action

- Through the agency of universal prime energy, the subject and object elements of every entity form a common base and enter into interaction. This interaction, in turn, generates all the forces the entity needs for existence, multiplication and action.
- The interaction generating these forces through this process is called give and take action.

B. What Does the Bible Say about the Law of Karma?

“Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed” (Gen. 9:6).

“Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again your sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.”

CHAPTER 2
FALL OF MAN

The Root of Sin

The root of sin was not that the first human ancestors ate a fruit, but rather that they had an illicit sexual relationship with an angel (symbolized by a serpent).

Consequently, they could not multiply God's good lineage but instead multiplied Satan's evil lineage.

The original sin has been perpetuated through lineal descent from one generation to the next, sexual relationship that binds one in ties of blood.

CHAPTER 2
FALL OF MAN

The Spiritual Fall

Lucifer, who left his proper position due to his excessive desire, and Eve, who wanted to open her eyes and become like God before the time was ripe, formed a common base and began give and take action.

The power of the unprincipled love generated by their give and take led them to consummate an illicit sexual relationship on the spiritual plane.

CHAPTER 2
FALL OF MAN

The Physical Fall

Once Eve had united with the Archangel through their illicit sexual relationship, she stood in the position of the Archangel with respect to Adam.

Seeing Adam as her only hope of returning to God, Eve turned to Adam and tempted him, playing the same role as the Archangel had played when he had tempted her. Adam responded and formed a common base with Eve, and they began give and receive action with each other.

Part II
The Principle of Restoration through
Indemnity

How does God separate Satan from fallen people who stand in the midway position? Satan relates with them on the basis of his connection with them through lineage. Therefore, until people make a condition through which God can claim them as His own, there is no way God can restore them to the heavenly side.

Exposition of the Divine Principle
1996 Translation
Part II
The Principle of Restoration through
Indemnity

On the other hand, Satan acknowledges that God is the Creator of human beings. Unless Satan finds some condition through which he can attack a fallen person, he also cannot arbitrarily claim him for his side. Therefore, a fallen person will go to God's side if he makes good conditions and to Satan's side if he makes evil conditions.

The providence of restoration through indemnity is the path that returns to the original ideal.

The Unification Church is doing things opposite to what was done in the past.

Judaism, the nation of Israel and Rome came together to strike Jesus, but the Unification Church is doing the opposite thing.

Today, based on the foundation of the realm of victory gained in America, put pressure on the Korean government and Christianity.

Thus, the Unification Church has restored through indemnity the situation of Jesus who was killed by the combined opposition of Israel, Judaism and Rome.

We would merely be the slaves of our past and that which has already been decided. There would be no cultivation of moral and spiritual growth.*

Buddhism

- When wrongdoers are seen to be thriving or content, many feel that the law of cause and effect is not operative in their lives, but Buddha is explaining that at the moment they are reaping the effects of past good karma, but in time they will reap the evil, as well.

By observing a person's present life we certainly can see what kind of karma they created some time previously, and can know what kind will be coming to them later on.

Ex. Hitler, was very popular in 1935 Germany, building roads, creating jobs later most evil creator of WW2 killing millions.

DP: In the course of the providence of restoration, a false representation of the ideal appears before the emergence of its true manifestation.

The Biblical Prophecy that the antichrist will appear before the return of Christ is an illustration of this truth.

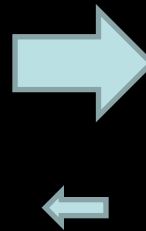

Ramakrishna

According to Vivekananda, an important teaching he received from Ramakrishna was that Jiva is Shiva (each individual is divinity itself).

So he stressed on Shiva Jnane Jiva Seva, (to serve common people considering them as manifestation of God).

Vivekananda

Raija Yoga – Bhakti-Yoga – Karma Yoga
(Link)

A Hindu monk from India who played significant role in introducing Vedanta to the Western world and also reviving and redefining certain aspect of the religion within India. India's renaissance guru.

- In Karma-Yoga we have simply to do with the word Karma as meaning work.
- The goal of mankind is knowledge.

That is the one ideal placed before us by Eastern philosophy. Pleasure is not the goal of man, but knowledge. Pleasure and happiness come to an end. It is a mistake to suppose that pleasure is the goal.

The cause of all the miseries we have in the world is that man foolishly think pleasure to be the ideal to strive for.

After a time man finds that it is not happiness, but knowledge, towards which he is going, and that both pleasure and pain are great teachers, and that he learns as much from evil as from good.

Source:

http://www.ramakrishnavivekananda.info/vivekananda/volume_1/karma-yoga/karma-yoga_contents.htm

The word Karma is derived from the Sanskrit Kri, to do; all action is Karma.

As pleasure and pain pass before his soul they have upon it different pictures, and the result of these combined impressions is what is called man's "character".

All knowledge, therefore, secular or spiritual, is in the human mind. In many cases it is not discovered, but remains covered, and when the covering is being slowly taken off, we say, "We are learning," and the advance of knowledge is made by the advance of this process of uncovering.

The ideal man is he who, in the midst of the greatest silence and solitude, finds the most intense activity, and in the midst of the intense activity finds the silence and solitude of the desert.

He has learnt the secret of restraint, he has controlled himself.

That is the ideal of Karma-Yoga, and if you have attained to that you have really learnt the secret of work.

All this is determined by Karma, work.

No one can get anything unless he earns it.

This is an eternal law.

Emotionally-charged events from your past can still be haunting you in the form of “trapped emotions”; emotional energies that literally inhabit your body.

Dr. Nelson explains clearly and concisely how trapped emotions can create pain, malfunction and eventual disease. In addition, trapped emotions can exert a dramatic effect on how you think, the choices that you make, and how successful you will be.

Perhaps the most important discovery that Dr. Nelson has made is that trapped emotional energies will often gather around the heart, creating a “Heart-Wall” that may block you from giving and receiving love freely.

Family Constellations is an alternative therapeutic method which draws on elements of family systems therapy, existential phenomenology and Zulu attitudes to family.

In a single session, a Family Constellation supposedly attempts to reveal a previously unrecognized systemic dynamic that spans multiple generations in a given family and to resolve the deleterious effects of that dynamic by encouraging the subject to accept the factual reality of the past.
