Divine Principle & Freud & Jung

Purpose: To shortly introduce Freud and Jungs thoughts and compare them with the novel teachings in Divine Principle of korean prophet Sun Myung Moon.

Summary: The sexual parts of Freud and Jung, are precursors of the Full truth of illicit Spiritual and Physical sexuality as the root Sin; later revealed by Sun Myung Moon in Divine Principle 1936-45.

Carl Gustav Jung

Sigmund Freud

(Moravia, 6 May 1856 – London, 23 September 1939)

Austrian neurologist (a person who treats the nervous system).

He invented the treatment of mental illness and neurosis by means of psychoanalysis.

Freud is important in psychology because he studied the unconscious mind.

The unconscious part of the mind cannot be easily controlled or noticed by a person.

Three Essays on the Theory of Sexuality sometimes titled Three Contributions to the Theory of Sex, is a 1905 work by Sigmund Freud which advanced his theory of sexuality, in particular its relation to childhood.

Discussing the choice of children and animals as sex objects — pedophilia and bestiality — he notes that most people would prefer to limit these perversions to the insane "on aesthetic grounds" but that they exist in normal people also.

Sexuality is the key to the problem of the psychoneuroses and of the neuroses in general.

No one who disdains the key will ever be able to unlock the door. /Sigmund Freud

Comment: Compare with Divine Principle, and the (sexual) Fall of Man - (further below)

The Returning Christ must disclose the root of the Fall and its solution.

Freud was surely onto the Truth about the Fall of Man

Freud on Telepathy

Freud is so impressed by Cecil Murray's report on telepathic experiments at the Society for Psychical Research that he is "prepared to give up his resistances to the existence of thought transference".

"As you remember I already expressed a favorable bias toward telepathy during our trip to the Harz. But there was no need to do so publicly; my conviction was not very strong, and the diplomatic aspect of preventing psychoanalysis from drawing too close to occultism very easily retained the upper hand.

Now, the revision of Traumdeutung (Dream interpretation) for the collected edition gave me the impetus to reconsider the problem of telepathy.

In the meantime, however, my personal experience through tests, which I undertook with Ferenczi and my daughter, have attained such convincing power over me that diplomatic considerations had to be relinquished.

Again I was presented with an instance where, on a very much reduced scale, I had to repeat the great experiment of my life; namely, to admit to a conviction without considering the resonance of the world around me.

So it was then inevitable. If anyone should bring up with you my Fall from grace, just answer calmly that my acceptance of telepathy is my own affair, like my Judaism and my passion for smoking, etc., and that the subject of telepathy is not related to psychoanalysis." [SF-Jones 7.3.1926]

Number one is, there was a point in time when human beings were naked, and they weren't ashamed of it. Number two is, there is a point in time — which is now — when they are naked, and they are ashamed of it.

The question is, well, what's associated with nakedness and shame?

That's often given a sexual connotation in classic interpretations of the Adam and Eve story — because of its association with nudity, I presume.

But I think it's a lot more complicated than that.

Jordan Petersen MD

Part of clothing is protection, but a tremendous amount of it is merely stopping other people from evaluating you too harshly all the time; it just gets in the way.

Anyways, this story makes the case that, at some point, we weren't like that. Animals aren't like that, so it seems perfectly plausible that we weren't like that.

But, at some point, that changed.

Jordan Petersen MD

Adam and Eve are tempted by the snake;
they eat the fruit; they wake up;
they realize they're naked;
they realize that they're vulnerable;
they realize the future;
they realize they're gonna die;
they realize they're gonna have to work;
they realize the difficulty in conception,
and the fall of humankind from unconscious paradise.

Ok. That makes sense.

What about the knowledge of good and evil?

Jordan Petersen MD

Human beings wake up (eyes are opened),
and they think,
we're vulnerable — permanently. It's never going away.
It's the recognition of that eternal vulnerability.

Jordan Petersen MD

The Mesopotamians believed that human beings were made out of the blood of Kingu, who was the worst monster that Tiamat, the Goddess of chaos, could imagine and then produce.

So their idea was that there as something deeply, deeply, deeply, demonically flawed about humanity.

That's their conception, and it's out of that same milieu that these stories emerge.

Jordan Petersen MD

The snake isn't just the snake in the garden, and the snake isn't just the possible snake,
and the snake isn't just the snake that's your enemy.

The snake is your friend, because your friend can betray you.
And then it's even worse than that, because you can betray you.

So even if you get rid of all the outside snakes, you've got an inside snake, and God only knows what it's up to.

Revelations – Divine Telepathy

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, “Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?”

So they said, “Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Revelations – Divine Telepathy

Simon Peter answered and said,
“You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

Jesus answered and said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. Math 16:13-17

Jung

C.G. Jung, Man and her Symbols

Every culture has a mythological depiction of a fall into sin – alienation

Common symbols - of Humanity common "collective subconscious"

The symbols indicate a sexual guilt!

(Compare DP Original Sin) - link

In the Greek mythology, Pandora's box is a famous example. Pandora was a woman who was going to marry one of the gods, before the existence of evil.

They gave her a box and asked her not to open it until the wedding night was over.

However, she could not resist or control her curiosity and upon opening it, terrible misfortunes and calamities befell the human race.

The Bible tells the story of Adam and Eve.

The famous psychoanalyst, Carl Jung, understood these stories not merely as superstition or myth, but as important revelations of a truth far beyond the comprehension of our rational mind.

For Jung, these were symbolic expressions of the collective memory of the human race, a treasure of secrets coming from our subconscious collective mind that tells us about our past as human beings.

Out of all the stories dealing with, what religions traditionally call, "the human fall", the Bible contains the most detailed account and the one which has caused the biggest impact on the different world cultural spheres. Consequently, this story deserves our undivided attention.

Confronting the Shadow - satan

I don't assume that we can think eternal subjects like infinity, immortality, etc. We can only use such words. We just don't know what is going to happen after death.

The only thing we know within reasonable certainty is that the psyche is relatively independent of time and space or that time and space (including causality) are relatively dependent upon the psyche.

(Vide: Jung and Pauli, the Interpretation of Nature and the Psyche, 1955.)

In his autobiography Memories, Dreams, Reflections the Swiss psychologist Carl Jung recounts his conversation with a highly cultivated elderly Indian, a friend of Mahatma Gandhi's.

In discussing the different ways in which education took place in India, the Indian answered in reply to a question by Jung that his own guru was a man named Shankaracharya.

Jung replies:

"You don't mean the commentator on the Vedas who died centuries ago?"

"Yes, I mean him," he said, to my (Jung's) amazement.

"Then you are referring to a spirit?" I asked.

"Of course it was his spirit," he agreed....

"There are ghostly gurus too," he added.

"Most people have living gurus. But there are always some who have a spirit for a teacher."

As Jung records, his conversation is an enlightenment to him, for over a period of time he had a similar experience, but he had not been able to explain it.

Through his Indian acquaintance, he comes to understand people on earth are frequently guided by those on the spirit world.

Comment: For Divine Principle, the phenomenon experienced by Jung and his associate is an example of activity by spirit persons who are pursuing their own continuing resurrection.

*Since these spirit people did not complete the process during their lifetime on earth, they return to earth in spirit form to fulfill the task they left unaccomplished.

They do this by helping and guiding people who are still on earth. As the spirit person assists the growth and achievement of such people on earth, he himself is spiritually benefited and progressively resurrected.

Mr. Moon says a person - a psychic or a medium who may be controlled by an entity who hasn't been here very long and who probably is still expressing and trying to validate some of the things that she believed while on earth - may look at you and become aware of a personality that is more than you are at this moment - at this particular hour of your life.

She may get the idea that she is dealing with another incarnation. There is no reincarnation in the sense that there is a law which drives people back over and over again, but there is a law of correspondence. (returning resurrection)

And when Jesus said, "It is necessary that I go, because if I (and the word 'I' as he used it meant 'I' the limited ego, which you know as your friend Jesus) - if I do not go the Spirit of Truth cannot come."

In other words, he knew that he could only manifest in the highest and truest sense and speak the final truth, the spiritual truth, when he was no longer handicapped by personality - when he was no longer limited to the recognition on the part of his friends that he was just Jesus of Nazareth.

They could not always know that there was something more than the carpenter's son. - There was something using him.

And that is what I meant when I said,
"The things that I do you could do, because I will send the Whole Spirit - the Spirit out from the top - until it envelops and involves all those who are ready to receive it."

And that was the only time I ever really understood the Oriental preoccupation with the idea of rebirth.

Rebirth is a spiritual thing.

The spirit uses physical instruments, but is not limited to them.

Folklorists and Jungian psychologists tell us that through art, the psychological truth emerges as it is shared by the collective unconscious.

In great paintings, the psychic background of our ancestral and primal past is revealed.

In reality, many great artists of the past manipulated symbols and archetypes of the “collective unconscious” to advocate specific “truths.”

And the most famous perpetrator was Leonardo Da Vinci.

In 1913 two men in Western Europe, in different age and unknown to each other, began to undergo a very unusual experience:

CG Jung and J.R.R. Tolkien stepped above a threshold and entered the world of imagination.

For Jung this process, which he called active imagination, took the final shape by Liber Novus, also known as the Red Book, which became the seed for almost all of his subsequent works.

1913

The rebirth of a new image of God in his soul and developing a new worldview in the form of a psychological and theological cosmology.

They had the shadow of eternity upon them and I could feel the truth of it.

The Red Book told of the battle between the world of reality and the world of the spirit. /page 68

For Tolkien this fantasy Middle-earth, whose eventually led to the writing of The Lord of the Rings, a book that even within its own contextual history, called the Red Book of the West march.

revealed the world of stories and myths

Even in different areas, namely, psychology and philology – there are many synchronistic parallels between Jung and Tolkien's "Red book periods"; the style of their works of art, the nature of their visions and dreams and a similarity of worldview that emerged from their experiences are all signs that they may have trampled sometimes, the same paths through the archetypal realm.

The Black Books are a collection of seven private journals recorded by Carl Gustav Jung principally between 1913 and 1932; they have been referred to as the "Black Books" due to the color of the final five journals' covers.

In these notebooks C. G. Jung recorded his imaginative and visionary experiences during the transformative period that has been called his "confrontation with the unconscious.

"my most difficult experiment.

C.G. Jung –

The Red Book - Liber Novus ("The New Book")

The Red Book is a red leather-bound folio manuscript crafted by the Swiss psychiatrist Carl Gustav Jung between 1915 and about 1930.

It recounts and comments upon the author's imaginative experiences between 1913 and 1916, and is based on manuscripts first drafted by Jung in 1914-15 and 1917.

Despite being nominated as the central work in Jung's oeuvre, it was not published or made otherwise accessible for study until 2009.

The Red Book is not "personal" as we use that word now. It is "personal" in the sense that it details one individual's very unique experience of coming into relationship with what Jung termed the Self, and in prior times was referred to as God, but it is at the same time very impersonal, and actually universal, in cataloguing the drama inherent in any person's formation of that relationship.

The book is at home with The Odyssey, The Divine Comedy, Goethe's Faust, and, as much as anything, The Red Book is Jung's response to Thus Spoke Zarathustra and to Nietzsche's proposition that for modern man, God is dead.

amazon Comment : It is beyond description!

This truly unique book represents the personal journal one courageous man took into the dangerous realm of the unconscious in search of an understanding of himself and the structure of the human personality in general.

In the process, Jung regained his soul which was lost in the contemporary malaise of spiritual alienation. Liber Novus, as the book is called, represents a prototype of the individuation process, which is seen as the universal form of individual development.

Jung was a psychiatrist who worked with schizophrenics. He intuited that their fantasies held meaning important for their healing and saw that some of the fantasies corresponded to mythological motifs.

This curiosity lead Jung to his own decision to drop beneath consciousness to explore the realm of these fantasies, the realm of the "dead". He did this without chemicals or inducers but through a process he called active imagination. An inner world opened up to him to explore, which he documented in his writings and paintings.

Comment: The Korean independence movement was a military and diplomatic campaign to achieve the independence of Korea from Japan. After the Japanese annexation of Korea in 1910, local resistance in Korea culminated in the March 1st Movement in 1919, which was crushed and sent Korean leaders to flee into China.

Was it Gods Messianic Korean Providence that inspired Jung's writing of the Red Book! -1916-1917

Freedom, the Fall, and Restoration

Freedom of the original mind brings about only good results.

The Fall was not because of freedom of the original mind.

There are hundreds of billions of spirits in the spirit world.

Billions of spirits are on the attack to take hold over the physical world.

Neurosis is one resultant phenomenon of this reality.

After the year 2000, people will be able to communicate with each other spiritually.

Whether they communicate with evil or good spirits, they may fight even if they are ordered not to make war.

This time could come, but the mission of the Unification Principle is to prevent this.

A tall tower produces radio interference.

The phenomena of neurosis are like that.

The most fearful thing would be if only evil spirits mobilized and attacked the physical world.

What would happen if that were case?

Regardless of the number of people on earth, they would all be attacked by evil spirits.

Dae Mo Nim's Work to Separate Earthbound Spirits

- In the mid-1980s, Rev. Sun Myung Moon recognized a need to address the debilitating phenomenon of attached earthbound spirits on the population of the world, especially beginning with the members of the Unification Church.

For this purpose he chose Soon Ae Hong, the mother of his wife Hak Ja Han Moon.

See <http://journals.uts.edu/volume-ix-2008>

A Comparison of William Baldwin's "Spirit Releasement Therapy" and Dae Mo Nim's Ancestor Liberation

Both Baldwin and Dr. Shakuntala Modi, through their depossession practices, have discovered that somewhere between 80% and 90% of their clients' debilitating symptoms were caused by possessing human and demon entities, and that removing these attached spirits for the most part permanently removed their patients' symptoms.

Furthermore, in 1991, Baldwin publicly declared that “spirit attachment is almost universal in the human population”

and, for this reason, mental health professionals and clergy should be “trained to use the appropriate techniques to relieve this affliction.”

As if to answer this call, Dae Mo Nim has appeared in our time as a providential healer, whose depossession techniques serve humanity as a whole:

There is another enormous pollution yet unknown to humanity, and this is the spiritual pollution.

Few people know that the invisible spiritual pollution is more dangerous than the visible pollution.

The Chung Pyung Spiritual Training Center is a place of recycling evil spirits into absolutely good spirits (ABS).

It creates a miracle of giving rebirth to the spiritual selves degraded like useless garbage and transforming them into God's children with cosmic value.

Dr. Martin Luther King

"When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of that old Negro spiritual,

In Order To Realize the World Of Peace
Rev. Sun Myung Moon
February 6, 2003

A prophecy

I would like to ask you to take deep interest in the prophecy that I am about to make.

Humankind is at a turning point.

This era is that long-awaited time in which the power of God will become manifest in our lives, even though He is invisible and has seemed almost powerless and nonexistent in the past.

In Order To Realize the World Of Peace
Rev. Sun Myung Moon
February 6, 2003

The time has come when the absolute power of God, who is the Lord of the holy order and laws which really do exist in all things and in the universe, will manifest in amazing ways and be experienced by people in their daily lives.

In this way, humankind will naturally experience the laws of the universe, and become true people through a clear change in character.

Through this, people will learn that the existing order of the universe and the relationships of humankind were not made to be centered on oneself or self-interest; rather, they were made to live for the sake of others altruistically.

Final
Prophecy
for 2013

Therefore, it is time for all people to be humbly obedient to Heaven's decree. An unavoidable time is upon us today when we must invest ourselves completely with a life or death commitment for these remaining three years under the guidance of the True Parents who carry out the providence on earth as the substantial representatives of God, the King of Kings.

All the good spirits in the spirit world are mobilized and are already moving forward, a step ahead of you.

Amen

Aju! (2006)

I am working hard to send my anointed representatives to all nations.

The era in which they live is one in which mistakes such as that of John the Baptist will never be repeated.

Unlike Jesus, whose time ended abruptly through his going the way of the cross, I surely will complete the restoration of God's homeland on this earth, as I have received Heaven's seal as the King of Peace.

With God and the King of Peace as the central axis,
I shall lead the anointed representatives sent throughout the world and so create the original ideal kingdom of everlasting peace.
