Introduction

1993

"Ladies and gentlemen, it is my great privilege to announce to you the establishment of the first True Family. Reverend and Mrs. Sun Myung Moon ... have achieved, on the family level, the central root, the central trunk, and the central bud of the Tree of Life mentioned in the Bible."

Introduction

This marks the beginning of the Completed Testament Age.

At the dawn of the Completed Testament Age, the time has come for each family to take up the messianic mission of completing the work of salvation all over the world.

After restoring your family, the next step is to restore your community, tribe, and nation.

We call this process tribal messiahship.

Introduction

Tribal messiahship is the fulfillment of the biblical vision of "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation" (1 Peter 2:9).

This race, however, is the "love race," including all people in one global family.

In fact, the Reverend Moon calls us to become "a royal family of God."

Introduction

Tribal messiahs also answer Jesus' call for the "faithful and wise steward" (Luke 12:42), trusted by his master with all the goods of his household. God has indeed bestowed upon us the goods of this earth.

Tribal messiahship requires wisdom in responsible care for the creation, based upon faith in the master who created it.

Introduction

Tribal messiahs also inherit the commission given by Jesus to evangelize and teach (Matthew 28:19-20).

To live for the sake of others means not only to serve others spiritually and physically, but to teach others the word which gives life, God has revealed His word progressively according to man's ability to receive it.

Today marks the opening of the Completed Testament Age, in which God's word is made flesh as husband and wife, parents and children. It is the responsibility of tribal messiahs to witness to this truth, to teach it and to live it.

SMM 20 May 1978

Since I am here you are like a little branch come out of my bark. You should be able to cut off your branch and plant it in a foreign land and still be able to grow, become independent.

You are a branch of the bark so God will chop this branch and plant it in your own country.

There you put down roots and grow up into a great trunk.

Due to Adam and Eve's fall, the elder brother was positioned on satan's side. This should be reversed.

This reversal of dominion has reached the summit of the world.

The satanic world has developed until now centering upon the nation.

That is why the Messiah cannot come unless there is a rational level of unity between Cain and Abel. Cain and Abel must unite in order to prepare a firm foundation for the tribal messiah to stand on.

Jesus came to earth 4,000 biblical years later than Cain and Abel. What did he seek? He came to look for a Judaism united with the nation of Israel, which were in a Cain and Abel relationship with each other. Nothing is possible without considering Cain and Abel's story.

The returning Messiah must deal with the blood relationship. The Messiah is in Adam's position. That is why a parent is restored through Abel, as the Principle makes clear.

After your blessing you shall be able to restore your own clan, your own tribe, your relatives.

In your territory you should be able to have your own 12 disciples, your own tribe. You are going to your own country as the Messiah of the tribe, the tribal Messiah.

At the time of Jesus there was no foundation laid, no indemnity paid. So since then you had to suffer, you had to pay by blood and by sweat but now all the indemnity is paid.

Everything you achieved has become a visible thing, a visible achievement.

We have an incredibly easy task today compared to the time of Jesus, because Satan will not claim, because the price has been paid by God.

You transcend all the indebtedness of the human system and everything you do shall become your own assets, shall be accumulated, can be seen.

I have done everything that had to be done as a Father, everything that was my responsibility has been fulfilled.

All you have to do is fulfill the tribal Messiah's role in your own family own clan. You should be the Messiah to them.

You shall welcome the Messiah... You shall be part of him.

You shall expand his territory and build the Kingdom here on earth. Do you follow?

Everyone of you shall take Jacob's position.

You shall marry and have 12 children of your own, the internal ones twelve sons and daughters and externally you shall have 12 spiritual children.

External internal both, 12 spiritual children each.

Eventually that will expand into 72 disciples, 12 and 72 makes 84.

/SMM 20 May 1978

There is no such word like "tribal messiah" in the Bible, but it is very essential in our vocabulary.

From now on it will be the time of the worldwide level. I have indemnified the national level time period centering upon Jesus, and we are now liberated from it.

You can become tribal messiahs on the worldwide level where there is no more persecution.

From now on, when you are united with your spiritual children and restore your tribal messiahship, even other tribes in the spirit world will support you. A united front line will then take place.

Heavenly Tribal Messiah Collection,
which has the title*

What Is a Heavenly Tribal Messiah?

As our understanding of this central mission matures, we can face the challenge of achieving it with greater confidence.

Wat does it mean to be an ideal family that resembles Heavenly Parent? It refers to the tradition of living for the sake of others and enabling the object partner to reach perfection, centering on Heavenly Parent's attributes, so that subject partner can reach perfection.

In other words, the value and perfection of the husband does not lie with himself but with the wife.

This is because he does not call himself "husband"; it is his wife who calls him that.

There may be many women in the world, but the only one who calls you "husband" is your wife.

Likewise, the value of the wife does not lie with herself, but is created and perfected through the husband. Therefore, there is no perfection for the person in the family who simply says, Follow me.

You must move according to the object partner who enables you to reach perfection. Only then can your position be recognized and you can take the path to perfection. In conclusion, the perfection of my value does not lie with me. It can be perfected only through my partner.

Therefore, to become perfect, we must put effort into enabling our object partner to become perfect. Only then can our position be perfected.

We must take the path that the partner wants to take and the path of enabling our partner to become perfect in order for our position to be fulfilled.

In the same way, why did Heavenly Parent create human beings? It was because He cannot become a parent without creating human beings as his children and enabling them to become perfect.

The conclusion is that our perfection does not lie with us.

The original ideal world is a world where I can become perfected by enabling my partner to become perfect. It is a world where we are acknowledged and reach perfection by living for the sake of others.

If we invest and sacrifice to try to enable our partner to become perfect, our position also can be perfected as our partner becomes perfect.

Steps to realize a heavenly family

First: Only when our family completes the Cain tribe, can our family be perfected as a heavenly family.

If there is no Cain tribe, our family cannot become perfect. This is because the path for Satan to enter would be wide.

However, if the Cain tribe is restored, Satan cannot attack. This is because the Cain realm is the symbol of the lineage of the people who followed Satan.

Therefore, the Abel tribe can be protected by the defensive barrier of the Cain realm.

That is why the Abel tribe must love those in the Cain tribe until the very end, guide them to take the path toward knowing Heavenly Parent and realizing the restoration of the authority of siblings (restoration of the authority of the eldest son).

Second is to perfect love. If we love many people and enable them to reach perfection, it may seem as if we took the path of investing and sacrificing for our partner, but at some point, we will receive recognition from many people and be in the position of parents and receive the right of inheritance.

We will be born as heavenly tribal messiahs who resembles Heavenly Parent.

Therefore, in the end, the completion of the restoration of the tribe is not a burden but a hopeful movement.

It is the only path by which I perfect myself, by enabling my partner to reach perfection, and for my family to be perfected by taking the path of restoration of the tribe.

It is the movement in which all humankind is building one family under the original parents. It is the movement in which we ascend as the parents of the tribe.

Based on that foundation, the perfection of the people, nation and cosmos can be realized.

*Excerpt from the second book of the four-book
Heavenly Tribal Messiah Collection,
which has the title*

Becoming a Heavenly Messiah

Originally, Adam and Eve should have grown to maturity, received the marriage blessing and formed a beautiful family. Humankind should have been built on that original family. Had Adam and Eve received the marriage blessing, Heavenly Parent, an incorporeal being, would have become one with them by residing within them.

God's dream for creation was becoming a Creator with a physical form.

God created the first ancestors, Adam and Eve, to multiply and give birth to future generations and have dominion over creation.

Therefore, the second generation,
Adam and Eve, and the third generation, grandchildren, would form Heavenly Parent's kingship on earth centering on the first generation, Heavenly Parent.

The purpose of creation was to pass this tradition on eternally. Thus, blessed members should take Adam and Eve's position before the Fall, when they receive The blessing and build a family in which three generations — the grandparents, parents and grandchildren — live harmoniously.

In other words, a family's three generations should become one.

Within that family, parental love, conjugal love, siblings' love and children's love will achieve heart-to-heart unity and form a model of heaven.

The love between a husband and wife should perfect both: an absolute subject partner creates an absolute object partner, and an absolute object partner creates an absolute subject partner.

This is the order of creation. In other words, your wife is the only person out of all the women in the world who calls you her husband and accepts your value.

Parental heart is important

Using a similar reasoning as that described above, the parents alone do not determine the parents' position but the children calling them their parents determine it.

As a result, how much parents enable their children to grow To perfection is the basis for establishing the parents' value.

The realm of children's love

Children are in the position to become future parents themselves. Children who receive their parents' devoted love also return love with a filial heart. When they do their best to love their parents, their parents give them recognition. Therefore, the parents hand over their right as parents to the parents of the future world, their children.

The children inherit the right to lineage, the right to inheritance; grown children inherit the right of equal status, which places them in a position equal to that of their parents and gives them the right to participate as equals with their parents.

Thus, the perfection of children does not come about by them claiming it on their own; rather, being accepted by their parents establishes their position and value.

The realm of siblings' love

Adam and Eve committed the Fall and a conflict between Cain and Abel divided their family. Our original parent, God, hopes that the brothers/sisters will unite and return to their original parent.

Thus, we need not only to unite our physical children but also to seek out their brothers/sisters in the lost Cain realm and unite them with our children as brothers/sisters.

In other words, siblings need to live for one another's sake. An individual cannot create his/her own position, but when he/she takes the path to gaining recognition from his/her brother/sister, the value of his/her individual position will be recognized and perfected.

An ideal family resembling Heavenly Parent

What is an ideal family that resembles Heavenly Parent?

As mentioned above, it is a family that establishes the three great kingships and the four great realms of heart.

True lineage, true love and true traditions comprise the mainstream in this family, which lives for others' sake by centering on Heavenly Parent's characteristics, for the perfection of the other and then the perfection of the self. In other words, the recognition and perfection of a husband's values come not from himself but from his wife. It is the same for the wife.

Life as a Heavenly Tribal Messiah

By Lee Ker Shung

I joined the church on June 1, 1974, when I was a sophomore at Taiwan University, majoring in mathematics. I have followed True Parents and been on the path of faith for more than forty years, but I clearly remember this date because it was the day I was reborn through Heavenly Parent

I grew up in a Christian family. Every time I faced difficulties in my life of faith, my ancestors helped me; they would appear in my dreams and encourage me to stay in the church.

God's ideal of creation attracted me.

I still am trying to organize my 430 familie so that I can guide them effectively as their heavenly tribal messiah.

Most of them live in different cities in seven districts.

Forty of them have become blessed couples and attend the church as devout members.

The rest of the families are those who need more Divine Principle education to become regular members.

This is only small teaser part of the Testimony.

Managing and Caring for Your Heavenly Tribe.

In this book, we have sought to summarize True Parents' teachings on how heavenly tribal messiahs can organize their tribes and facilitate rotation and revolution according to the order of creation.

1) Establishing a nurturing, coaching leader

We need to train and support those who have the spiritual gifts of serving and teaching others and the heart of loving souls among members whom received coaching training according to the situations of HTM Leader School or hoondok family association.

A trinity home group, the three-, twelve- thirty-six-person structures and the twelve-person hoondok family association should have at least one professional coach.

(2) Establishing core coaches for expansion

One-on-one coaching care has limitations.

However, one-on-one coaching care is the most powerful method because it can increase the spiritual maturity of a person in a customized way, according to the degree of faith of particular members.

To do it at any time in a small hoondok family association (twelve to thirty-six people) is possible.

(3) Establishing a core coach for mid size groups

Several home groups become a hoondok family association and their union makes a mid-size home group.

Then it will become a “village FFWPU” (city ward and block).

These mid-size groups should offer community training and service opportunities for education and training, including various leader school programs to produce strong groups benefiting local organizations.

(4) Establishing coaches for large groups

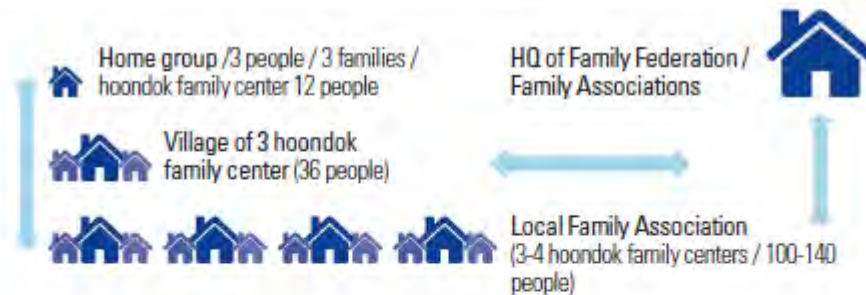

Home groups grow into hoondok family associations. Hoondok family associations become district (or village) level FFWPU.

When these districts are established, other regions or villages create districts and they join in making a large group, which the association of hoondok family churches should approve.

Starting from a trinity, 3 people, a trinity of 3 families (a home group) expands to a hoondok family center of 12 people.
