Introduction

Purpose: To shortly introduce Mans 3 Realities;

the inner consciousness,

the inner experienced Spiritual World – through our 5 Spiritual senses and the outer experienced Physical World – through our 5 Physical senses compare them with the novel teachings in Divine Principle by Korean prophet and Returning Messiah Sun Myung Moon.

Summary: Man needs to restore his/her Original Nature

The Spiritual Fall and the Physical Fall

God created human beings with two components the spirit self and the physical self.

The human Fall likewise took place in two dimensions:
the spiritual and the physical.

DIVINE PRINCIPLE

The fall which took place through the sexual relationship between the angel and Eve was the spiritual fall, while the fall which occurred through

the sexual relationship between Eve and Adam was the physical fall.

Satan's object partners are evil spirits in the spirit world.

The object partners to these evil spirits are the spirit selves of evil people on the earth, and the vehicles through which these evil spirit selves act are their physical selves.

Accordingly, the power of Satan is conveyed through evil spirits and is manifested in the activities of earthly people.

Wilson van Dusen M.D.

Present day psychosis always involves some degree of self pride (spiritual madness) but the hallucinated aspect looks most like what Swedenborg described under the general headings of obsessions (to be caught in false ideas) and possession to have alien spirits acting into one's thought, feelings, or even into one's own bodily acts.

He indicates that normally there is a barrier between these spiritual entities and man's own consciousness.

He also makes quite clear that if this barrier of awareness were penetrated the man would be in grave danger for his mental health and even for his life.

In my dialogues with (mental) patients I learned of two orders of experience, borrowing from the voices themselves, called the higher and the lower order.

Lower order voices are as though one is dealing with drunken bums at a bar who like to tease and torment just for the fun of it.

They will suggest lewd acts and then scold the patient for considering them. They find a weak point of conscience and work on it interteasing him for three years over a ten-cent debt he had already paid.

Swedenborg indicates that good spirits have some degree of control over the evil ones.
Higher order hallucinations have made the same comment — that they can control lower order ones, but it is seldom to the degree the patient would desire.

In some respects they overcome the evil insofar as the patient identifies with them.

A discovery four years ago helped me to get a relatively rich and consistent picture of the patients' experience. Though I noticed similarities with Swedenborg's description of the relationships of man to spirits it was only three years after all the major findings on hallucinations had been made that the striking similarity between what Twentieth-Century patients describe and Swedenborg's Eighteenth-Century accounts became apparent to me.

Common Base = Selfish desires

One thing is for sure: the highest religions have maintained that people must control their desires:
the desire to eat, to sleep and to experience sexual love.

Most difficult is to control the desire to experience sexual love.

Three Essays on the Theory of Sexuality

sometimes titled Three Contributions to the Theory of Sex, is a 1905 work by Sigmund Freud which advanced his theory of sexuality, in particular its relation to childhood.

Discussing the choice of children and animals as sex objects — pedophilia and bestiality — he notes that most people would prefer to limit these perversions to the insane "on aesthetic grounds" but that they exist in normal people also.

Sexuality is the key to the problem of the psychoneuroses and of the neuroses in general.

No one who disdains the key will ever be able to unlock the door. /Sigmund Freud

Number one is, there was a point in time when human beings were naked, and they weren't ashamed of it. Number two is, there is a point in time — which is now — when they are naked, and they are ashamed of it.

The question is, well, what's associated with nakedness and shame?

That's often given a sexual connotation in classic interpretations of the Adam and Eve story — because of its association with nudity, I presume.

But I think it's a lot more complicated than that.

Jordan Petersen MD

Part of clothing is protection, but a tremendous amount of it is merely stopping other people from evaluating you too harshly all the time; it just gets in the way.

Anyways, this story makes the case that, at some point, we weren't like that. Animals aren't like that, so it seems perfectly plausible that we weren't like that.

But, at some point, that changed.

Jordan Petersen MD

Adam and Eve are tempted by the snake;
they eat the fruit; they wake up;
they realize they're naked;
they realize that they're vulnerable;
they realize the future;
they realize they're gonna die;
they realize they're gonna have to work;
they realize the difficulty in conception,
and the fall of humankind from unconscious paradise.

Ok. That makes sense.

What about the knowledge of good and evil?

Jordan Petersen MD

Human beings wake up (eyes are opened),
and they think,
we're vulnerable — permanently.
It's never going away.
It's the recognition of that eternal vulnerability.

Jordan Petersen MD

The Mesopotamians believed that human beings were made out of the blood of Kingu, who was the worst monster that Tiamat, the Goddess of chaos, could imagine and then produce.

So their idea was that there as something deeply, deeply, deeply, demonically flawed about humanity.

That's their conception, and it's out of that same milieu that these stories emerge.

Jordan Petersen MD

The snake isn't just the snake in the garden, and the snake isn't just the possible snake,
and the snake isn't just the snake that's your enemy.

The snake is your friend, because your friend can betray you.
And then it's even worse than that, because you can betray you.

So even if you get rid of all the outside snakes, you've got an inside snake, and God only knows what it's up to.

Jung

C.G. Jung, Man and her Symbols

Every culture has a mythological depiction of a fall into sin – alienation

Common symbols - of Humanity common "collective subconscious"

The symbols indicate a sexual guilt!

(Compare DP Original Sin) - link

In the Greek mythology, Pandora's box is a famous example. Pandora was a woman who was going to marry one of the gods, before the existence of evil.

They gave her a box and asked her not to open it until the wedding night was over.

However, she could not resist or control her curiosity and upon opening it, terrible misfortunes and calamities befell the human race.

The Bible tells the story of Adam and Eve.

The famous psychoanalyst, Carl Jung, understood these stories not merely as superstition or myth, but as important revelations of a truth far beyond the comprehension of our rational mind.

For Jung, these were symbolic expressions of the collective memory of the human race, a treasure of secrets coming from our subconscious collective mind that tells us about our past as human beings.

Out of all the stories dealing with, what religions traditionally call, "the human fall", the Bible contains the most detailed account and the one which has caused the biggest impact on the different world cultural spheres. Consequently, this story deserves our undivided attention.

Confronting the Shadow - satan

I don't assume that we can think eternal subjects like infinity, immortality, etc. We can only use such words. We just don't know what is going to happen after death.

The only thing we know within reasonable certainty is that the psyche is relatively independent of time and space or that time and space (including causality) are relatively dependent upon the psyche.

(Vide: Jung and Pauli, the Interpretation of Nature and the Psyche, 1955.)

In his autobiography Memories, Dreams, Reflections the Swiss psychologist Carl Jung recounts his conversation with a highly cultivated elderly Indian, a friend of Mahatma Gandhi's.

In discussing the different ways in which education took place in India, the Indian answered in reply to a question by Jung that his own guru was a man named Shankaracharya.

Jung replies:

"You don't mean the commentator on the Vedas who died centuries ago?"

"Yes, I mean him," he said, to my (Jung's) amazement.

"Then you are referring to a spirit?" I asked.

"Of course it was his spirit," he agreed....

"There are ghostly gurus too," he added.

"Most people have living gurus. But there are always some who have a spirit for a teacher."

As Jung records, his conversation is an enlightenment to him, for over a period of time he had a similar experience, but he had not been able to explain it.

Through his Indian acquaintance, he comes to understand people on earth are frequently guided by those on the spirit world.

Comment: For Divine Principle, the phenomenon experienced by Jung and his associate is an example of activity by spirit persons who are pursuing their own continuing resurrection.

*Since these spirit people did not complete the process during their lifetime on earth, they return to earth in spirit form to fulfill the task they left unaccomplished.

They do this by helping and guiding people who are still on earth. As the spirit person assists the growth and achievement of such people on earth, he himself is spiritually benefited and progressively resurrected.

Purpose and Way of Returning Resurrection

We call this process returning resurrection (p. 145).

The Returning Resurrection of the Spirits of Israelites and Christians

After the advent of Jesus, the form spirits of the Old Testament age (▲) all returned to earth and assisted faithful people on earth (■) to attain the level of life spirit.

The Returning Resurrection of the Spirits of Israelites and Christians

By this, they too received the same benefit: they entered Paradise together. We call this growth-stage-returning resurrection.

Mr. Moon says a person - a psychic or a medium who may be controlled by an entity who hasn't been here very long and who probably is still expressing and trying to validate some of the things that she believed while on earth - may look at you and become aware of a personality that is more than you are at this moment - at this particular hour of your life.

She may get the idea that she is dealing with another incarnation. There is no reincarnation in the sense that there is a law which drives people back over and over again, but there is a law of correspondence. (returning resurrection)

And when Jesus said, "It is necessary that I go, because if I (and the word 'I' as he used it meant 'I' the limited ego, which you know as your friend Jesus) - if I do not go the Spirit of Truth cannot come."

In other words, he knew that he could only manifest in the highest and truest sense and speak the final truth, the spiritual truth, when he was no longer handicapped by personality - when he was no longer limited to the recognition on the part of his friends that he was just Jesus of Nazareth.

They could not always know that there was something more than the carpenter's son. - There was something using him.

And that is what I meant when I said,
"The things that I do you could do, because I will send the Whole Spirit - the Spirit out from the top - until it envelops and involves all those who are ready to receive it."

And that was the only time I ever really understood the Oriental preoccupation with the idea of rebirth.

Rebirth is a spiritual thing.

The spirit uses physical instruments, but is not limited to them.

Two people in one

Mind is the internal nature and body is the external form.
Mind and body are two correlative aspects of a human being;
hence, the body may be understood as a second mind. /EDP

There are hundreds of billions of spirits in the spirit world.

Billions of spirits are on the attack to take hold over the physical world.

Neurosis is one resultant phenomenon of this reality.

After the year 2000, people will be able to communicate with each other spiritually.

Whether they communicate with evil or good spirits, they may fight even if they are ordered not to make war.

This time could come, but the mission of the Unification Principle is to prevent this.
A tall tower produces radio interference.
The phenomena of neurosis are like that.

The most fearful thing would be if only evil spirits mobilized and attacked the physical world.

What would happen if that were case?

Regardless of the number of people on earth, they would all be attacked by evil spirits.

Dae Mo Nim's Work to Separate Earthbound Spirits

- In the mid-1980s, Rev. Sun Myung Moon recognized a need to address the debilitating phenomenon of attached earthbound spirits on the population of the world, especially beginning with the members of the Unification Church.

For this purpose he chose Soon Ae Hong, the mother of his wife Hak Ja Han Moon.

See <http://journals.uts.edu/volume-ix-2008>

Furthermore, in 1991, Baldwin publicly declared that “spirit attachment is almost universal in the human population” and, for this reason, mental health professionals and clergy should be “trained to use the appropriate techniques to relieve this affliction.”

As if to answer this call, Dae Mo Nim has appeared in our time as a providential healer, whose depossession techniques serve humanity as a whole:

A Comparison of William Baldwin's "Spirit Releasement Therapy" and Dae Mo Nim's Ancestor Liberation

Both Baldwin and Dr. Shakuntala Modi, through their depossession practices, have discovered that somewhere between 80% and 90% of their clients' debilitating symptoms were caused by possessing human and demon entities, and that removing these attached spirits for the most part permanently removed their patients' symptoms.

There is another enormous pollution yet unknown to humanity, and this is the spiritual pollution.

Few people know that the invisible spiritual pollution is more dangerous than the visible pollution.

The Chung Pyung Spiritual Training Center is a place of recycling evil spirits into absolutely good spirits (ABS).

It creates a miracle of giving rebirth to the spiritual selves degraded like useless garbage and transforming them into God's children with cosmic value.
