

Divine Principle
Communism!

I support the church, continue with ecumenical work and engage in Victory Over Communism activities for the sake of Korea's unification.

I am well aware that the unification of Korea is the beginning of the unification of the world.

The liberation of North and South Korea is the beginning of the liberation of humankind.

There is only one root, and that is Korea.

This is why I have been sacrificing my entire life for the liberation of Korea.

When ecclesiastic love waned, when waves of capitalistic greed surged across Christian Europe, when starving masses cried out bitterly in the slums, the promise of their salvation came not from heaven but from the earth.

When ecclesiastic love waned, when waves of capitalistic greed surged across Christian Europe, when starving masses cried out bitterly in the slums, the promise of their salvation came not from heaven but from the earth.

Its name was communism. Christianity, though it professed the love of God, had degenerated into a dead body of clergy trailing empty slogans.

When ecclesiastic love waned, when waves of capitalistic greed surged across Christian Europe, when starving masses cried out bitterly in the slums, the promise of their salvation came not from heaven but from the earth.

Its name was communism. Christianity, though it professed the love of God, had degenerated into a dead body of clergy trailing empty slogans.

It was then only natural that a banner of rebellion would be raised, arguing that a merciless God who would allow such suffering could not exist. Hence, modern materialism was born. Western society became a hotbed of materialism; it was the fertile soil in which communism flourished.

Christianity lost the ability to equal the successes of either communism or materialism and failed to present the truth that could conquer their theories.

Christians watched helplessly as these ideologies budded and thrived in their midst and expanded their influence all over the world.

What a pity this is! What is more, although Christian doctrine teaches that all humanity descended from the same parents, many citizens of Christian nations who profess this doctrine will not even sit together with their brothers and sisters of different skin colors.

This illustrates the actual situation of today's Christianity, which has lost much of the power to put the words of Jesus into practice. It has become a house of lifeless rituals, a whitewashed tomb.

Human history, woven of the lives of people who are inclined toward both good and evil, is filled with struggle. Today, external conflicts - battles over property, people and territory - are gradually diminishing. People are coming together transcending the differences between races.

The victors of World War II liberated their colonies, gave them equal rights with the great powers and included them as members of the United Nations.

Together, they are working toward a world order.

Hostility and discord in international relations have been mitigated as economic concerns come to the forefront and nations are cooperating to construct common markets. Culture is freely circulating, the traditional isolation of nations is being overcome and the cultural distance between East and West is being bridged.

Nonetheless, one final and inescapable conflict remains before us, the war between democracy and communism.

Although each side has equipped itself with fearsome weapons and is pitted against the other in readiness for battle, the core of their conflict is internal and ideological.

Which side will triumph in this final ideological conflict? Anyone who believes in the reality of God will surely answer that democracy will win.

However, democracy does not possess any doctrine which can win over communism, nor does it have the power to do so.

Therefore, in order for God's providence of salvation to be completely fulfilled, this new truth should first elevate the idealism of the democratic world to a new level, then use it to assimilate materialism, and finally bring humanity into a new world.

This truth must be able to embrace all historical religions, ideologies and philosophies and bring complete unity among them.

What form does this final war between democracy and communism take?

It is primarily a war of ideologies. Indeed, this war will never truly cease unless a truth emerges which can completely overthrow the ideology of Marxism-Leninism that is threatening the modern world.

Communist ideology negates religion and promotes the exclusive supremacy of science.

Hence, the new truth which can reconcile religion and science will emerge and prevail over the communist ideology.

It will bring about the unification of the communist and democratic worlds.

The trend of the history of conflict thus confirms that human history is the providential history to restore the original, ideal world.

It is only natural for the satanic realm, which reached its apogee in communism, to promote socialism.

This is because Satan always attempts to realize, in advance of God, a defective imitation of the divine plan.

God's plan is to develop a socialistic economy, although with a form and content utterly different from the state socialism that communism actually established.

The Ideals of Interdependence, Mutual Prosperity and Universally Shared Values versus Communism

Since Satan mimics God's providence in advance, the satanic side has advocated "scientific socialism" based on the theories of dialectical and historical materialism and has built the communist world.

The theory of historical materialism asserts that human history began as a primitive collective society and will be consummated with the creation of an ideal communist society.

After creating human beings, God promised to realize the Kingdom of Heaven. However, because Satan had formed kinship relations with people before God did, God had to permit him to construct an unprincipled world through fallen people in a distorted imitation of the ideal society which God intends to accomplish on the earth.

The communist world is this unprincipled world built by Satan.

Democracies of two types arose with the purpose of dismantling absolute monarchy and transferring sovereignty to the people.

Likewise, movements to further the ideals of interdependence, mutual prosperity and universally shared values arose on God's side, while communism was born on Satan's side, in order to demolish economic systems which concentrated a society's wealth in the hands of a privileged few.

Each of these movements has sought to establish a system which would distribute wealth more equally among people.

The aspirations to socialism on both sides have arisen in their providential striving to realize a society based on a truly democratic economic system.

The history of Western Europe is steered by the providence of restoration, the three aspects of religion, politics and economy have progressed separately through their own paths of development.

How can they come together at one point at the consummation of providential history to lay the foundation for the Second Advent of Christ?

Great Wind of protest!
Fall of Communism

A fundamental cause of this separate development was the divergence of religion and science, which are endeavors to overcome humanity's spiritual and physical ignorance.

For the paths of religion, politics and economy to converge and realize God's ideal, a new expression of truth must emerge which can completely integrate religion and science.

The religion founded upon this truth will lead all of humanity to become one with God in heart.

Such people will build an economy in accordance with the divine ideal.

These will be the foundations for a new political order which can realize the ideal of creation.

This will be the messianic kingdom built on the principles of interdependence, mutual prosperity and universally shared values.

The Cain-Type View of Life

Karl Marx (1818-1883) and Friedrich Engels (1820-1895) systematized the logic of the left-wing Hegelians as dialectical materialism.

They were influenced by Strauss and Feuerbach and also by French socialism.

They combined dialectical materialism with atheism and socialism to create the ideology of communism. In this way, the Cain-type view of life, which budded after the Renaissance and grew through the Enlightenment into atheism and materialism, matured into the godless ideology of Marxism, which became the cornerstone of the communist world of today.

The Abel-Type View of Life

Emanuel Swedenborg (1688-1772) was a renowned scientist whose spiritual senses were awakened; he began a systematic investigation of the spirit world and discovered many of its secrets.

Although his research was long ignored by theologians, recently, as increasing numbers of people have communicated with the spirit world, its value is gradually being recognized.

In these diverse ways, the Abel-type view of life was maturing to form the democratic world of today.

Communism was established in Russia.

Stalin soon rose to power as the antitype of Christ at the Second Advent on Satan's side.

Since Christ comes with the ideals of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth - interdependence, mutual prosperity and universally shared values - the satanic side tries to realize these ideals in advance by building an imitation of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, led by the satanic counterpart to Christ at the Second Advent.

While Hitler was the antitype of Jesus on Satan's side, Stalin was the antitype of the Second Advent of Christ on Satan's side.

The fact that Hitler and his nation were destroyed, while Stalin and his foundation of worldwide communism grew strong, indicated that the time for building the spiritual kingdom under the leadership of the resurrected Jesus had passed, and the age for building a new heaven and new earth (Rev. 21:1-7) under the leadership of Christ at the Second Advent had begun.

2nd Advent in the East

Since ancient times, the nations in the East have traditionally been considered to be the three nations of Korea, Japan and China. Among them, Japan throughout its history has worshipped the sun goddess, Amaterasu-omi-kami.

Japan entered the period of the Second Advent as a fascist nation and severely persecuted Korean Christianity.

China at the time of the Second Advent was a hotbed of communism and would become a communist nation.

Thus, both nations belonged to Satan's side. Korea, then, is the nation in the East where Christ will return.

Let us examine from the viewpoint of the Principle the various ways in which Korea has become qualified to receive Christ at the Second Advent.

As the nation to which the Messiah returns, Korea had to meet the following qualifications.

- A National Condition of Indemnity
- God's Front Line and Satan's Front Line
- The Object Partner of God's Heart
- Messianic Prophecies
- The Culmination of All Civilizations

Rev. Moon's activities may have filled a unique niche during the Cold War.

While nongovernmental, his media initiatives and educational initiatives in key sectors of society bolstered internal support for governments opposed to communism.

A distinctive feature of his work was the extensive popularization of a comprehensive ideological critique of Marxism-Leninism.

Meanwhile, Rev. Moon carried out activities in communist nations themselves which seem designed to help the leadership of those nations come closer to the leading Western powers.
