The Predestination of the Way in Which God's Will Is Fulfilled

Providence

God's Will Absolute

Fulfillment of God's Will

Human responsibility

Although God's Will of the providence of restoration is absolute and beyond human influence, its fulfillment necessarily requires the accomplishment of the human portion of responsibility (p. 156).

God predestines the process of its accomplishment conditionally, contingent upon the five percent responsibility of the central person, which must be completed in addition to the ninety-five percent responsibility of God (p. 157).

Predestination of the fulfillment of God's Will :
conditional

The predestination of the fulfillment of God's Will is conditional.

My comment:

The 100% fulfillment can be interpreted as good human respons from others around you (also good spirits)

If and when you fulfilled your 5% of responsibility you can expect heavenly intervention through others
to your benefit.

God's providence of salvation: one point  Whole

God's providence of salvation begins from one point and gradually expands to cover the whole.

God's providence of salvation: one point  Whole
Predestination of the providence of salvation: central person  Whole

Therefore, in the providence of salvation, God first predestines one person to be the central figure and then calls him to a mission.

Those people who have turned their backs on our movement look back at their past days here, their shame makes it impossible for them to come back.

That is the most miserable feeling of all.

They thought that in the outside world they would find a place of higher dimension and greater warmth of love.

Since they could not find any such place, however, they have lost hope and think back to their days in our movement and say, "Because of that person and because of this and that I had to leave." They want to justify themselves.

They think they have left, but somewhere in their hearts the Principle and our way of life are so deeply implanted that they cannot ignore them.

They confess that when they think of our movement they suffer loneliness and despair.

They long for the days when they took everything for granted in our movement.
