Part 3of3

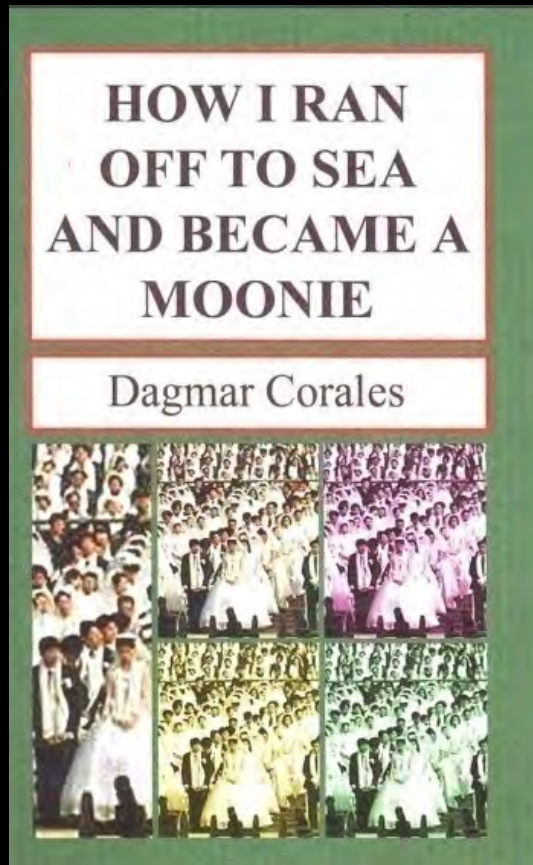

Dr. Young Oon Kim

All major religions have the return of a Holy Man

- Jewish Messiah
- Christian Christ
- Islam Imam/Mahdi
- Hinduism Avatar
- Buddhism Maitreya

Some early European Church-history:

Why would a person nowadays still accept an arranged marriage?

What is this "Matching"?

How about these International Blessings? How do they work?

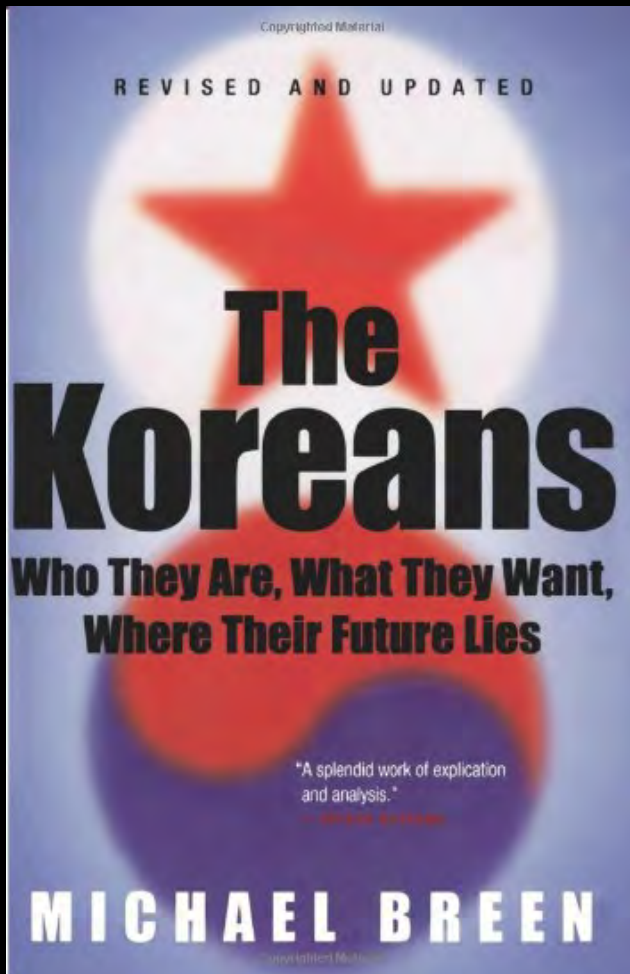

Why would somebody give up a steady job to be part of a traveling fundraising team, with no personal income?

My hope is that these stories will answer these questions.

The rise of South Korea is one of the most unexpected and inspirational developments of the latter part of our century.

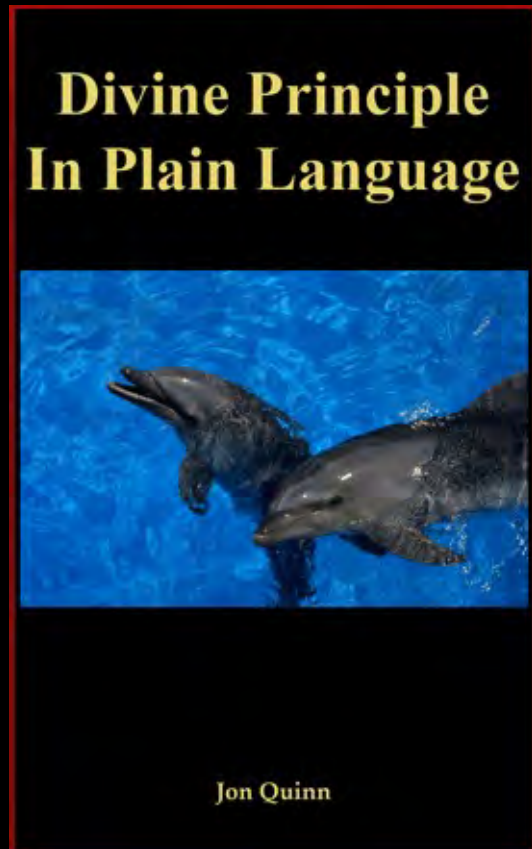

A few decades ago, the Koreans were an impoverished, agricultural people. In one generation they came out of the fields and into Silicon Valley.

In 1997, this powerhouse of a nation reeled and almost collapsed as a result of a weak financial system and heavily indebted conglomerates.

The world is now watching to see whether the Koreans will be able to reform and continue their stunning growth.

in the Collapse of Communism

- Part I

- Freedom, Family and Faith:
The Role of the Media in the 21st Century

- Part II Reagan and the fight for freedom

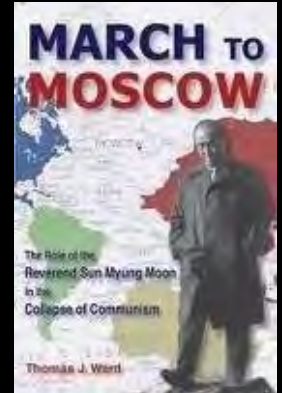

- Part III Today in the Light of Dispensational History

Today, compared to the size of the communists' power, the New Yorker Hotel (Unification Church World Mission Center) is like that small cubbyhole of 20 years ago. We have only a handful of people, yet we are talking about the liberation of the communists; we are talking about Moscow. I am sure most people laugh. Let them laugh now. I know one thing: In the communist world, the children of the communist leaders are on the side of God. The next generation in the Soviet Union will be on my side.

- Part IV INTRODUCTION TO REV. AND MRS MOON by Bo Hi Pak

- Part V CAUSA

Latin American heads of state expressed an interest in hearing an ideological response to Marxism.

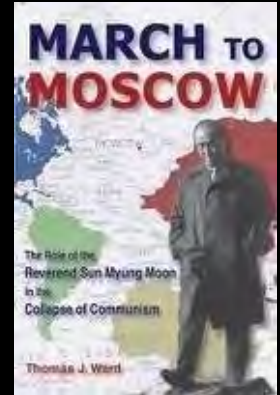

Heartened by the genuine interest expressed by Latin American governmental, religious, and civic leaders, Reverend Moon established CAUSA International. The first nation to express an interest in the CAUSA program was Bolivia. The first CAUSA seminar took place there in December 1980.

POST-COMMUNIST ERA

Since the demise of the Soviet Union, the American Leadership Conference continues to hold seminars for state legislators and religious and civic leaders; however, their major focus is no longer communism but rather strengthening the family and ethical values.

Gorbachev with (many ethnical roots
(maybe also korean roots!)

A melting pot of religions, Russia's Stavropol region is home to 14 ethnicities, which makes its diverse culture truly unique.
The Caucasus has been home to a multitude of ethnic groups for centuries.

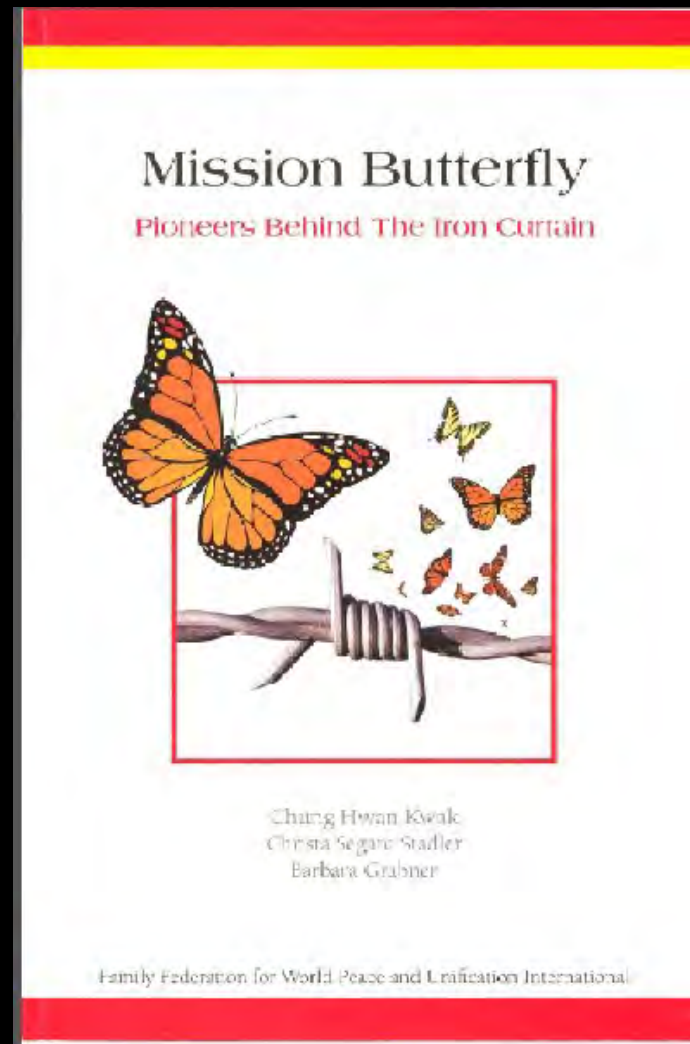

Whether it's a traditional Russian song, the serenity of prayer within an Armenian church, or even the simplicity of daily conversation around the dinner table in an Islamic home, the cultural, religious and ethnic diversity in the region is special.

“There are Christians, Muslims and Jewish people here. We even have Catholics, but we try not to consider the religious differences. We consider ourselves people of our town who live together,” says Sultan Temirov, who is the head of the Cherkess Society in the resort city of Pyatigorsk.

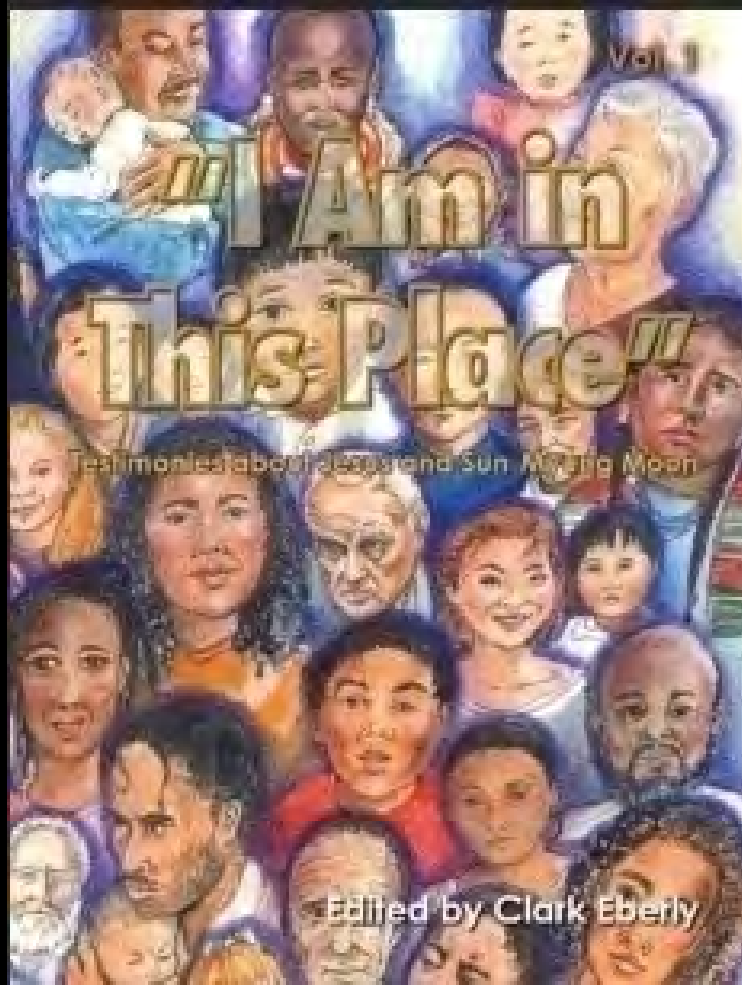

Koryo-saram is the name which ethnic Koreans in the post-Soviet states use to refer to themselves. Approximately 500,000 ethnic Koreans reside in the former Soviet Union, primarily in the now-independent states of Central Asia.

There are also large Korean communities in southern Russia (around Volgograd), the Caucasus, and southern Ukraine. These communities can be traced back to the Koreans who were living in the Russian Far East during the late 19th century.

I Am in This Place

Testimonies about
Jesus & Sun Myung Moon

I found myself walking in a dark corridor, at the end of which I saw a light. Getting closer, I saw in that bright light the face of Jesus.

Then Jesus' face changed into Sun Myung Moon's face.

I had the strong feeling that it was the same heart; only the external appearance changed.

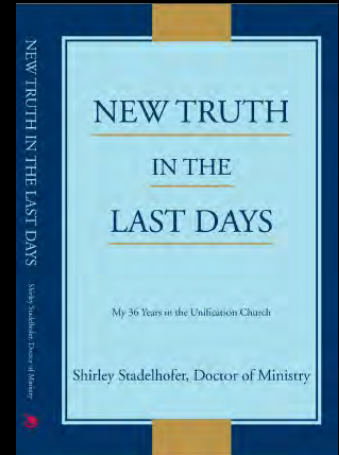

I felt profoundly happy!

This remains in my heart as extremely precious evidence that our True Parents embody God's love.

/ Elisabeth Ciacciarelli Schneider

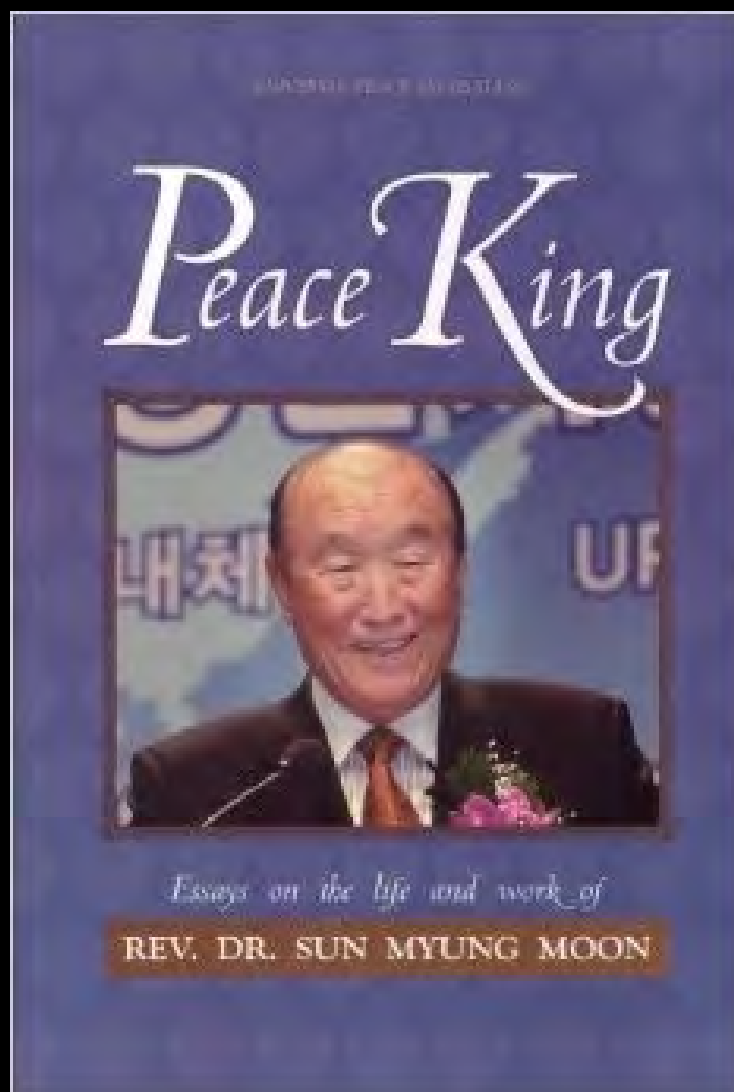

Shirley Stadelhofer

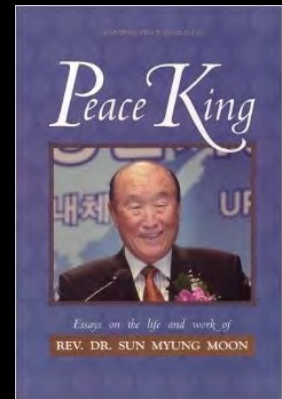

All of a sudden, something in the form of a soft light appeared at the foot of my bed. It did not speak and I was not afraid, but I had a strong feeling that it was a spiritual manifestation of Jesus. I believed he was trying to tell me something, but I wasn't sure what it was. After the vision faded, a strong conviction came to me that this "appearance" was a confirmation that the revelation from Sun Myung Moon, which I had been studying, was not false prophecy or heresy, but a new truth from God!

*Ambassador K. V. Rajan
Ambassador from India to Nepal (1995-2000)*

As a professional diplomat, I recall my curiosity several decades ago about the controversy generated about Father Moon in the United States.

I was then serving in Washington, D.C., and was invited by a group of fellow diplomats from Asian countries for a series of informal brainstorming sessions with academics, media persons and young professionals on how, utilizing Father Moons initiatives, civil society could strengthen official efforts to create a more peaceful world order.

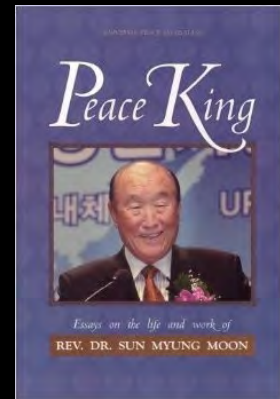

Ambassador K. V. Rajan
Ambassador from India to Nepal (1995-2000)

Gandhis emphasis on peacebuilding through concentric circles of human commitment ♦ the individual at the center surrounded respectively by the family, community, nation and the world had much to do with Indias success in liberating itself from the colonial yoke through non-violent means, and it remains at the root of Indias aspiration for becoming a major world power dedicated to peace.

This finds an echo for Indians in Father Moons emphasis on each individual being prepared to serve, sacrifice, and if necessary, suffer in the cause of peace.

Ambassador K. V. Rajan
Ambassador from India to Nepal (1995-2000)

The essence of Father Moons message is that unless the root causes of violence are tackled, the world will witness human tragedy on an unprecedented scale.

Father Moons personal sacrifices and sufferings, his incredibly punishing daily schedule, and his perseverance in building trust where there was enmity, interdependence where there was non-communication, harmony where there was conflict, and love where there was hatred, are examples for the rest of humanity.

Understanding Marriage: Partners, Friends, Lovers

Discover How Successful Couples
Continually Keep Love Alive

*I realized at one point that the 12 points that are mentioned in Understanding Marriage are all part of the Principle of Creation (in Divine Principle) –*

so I rearranged them into their rightful place within the PofC and then I could see what was missing from the course – the section on Mind/body unity and the section on growth and the role of vitality elements.

*They come together as a whole philosophy when you understand that our mind and heart should embody the positions of a true parent, true child, and true brother/sister.

*The 12 points are all part of achieving those three positions -
If you fulfil all the 3 positions, you embody the 12 points and more.*

Comparing Science and Human Love

EVERY LIVING ORGANISM, SOCIETY, RELIGION OR ORGANISATION, TO BE IN A STATE OF HEALTH, NEEDS TO EMBODY 5 DIFFERENT QUALITIES - ALL FLOWING AND WORKING TOGETHER IN SOME DEGREE OF HARMONY.

In my field these 5 qualities can termed as;

Protective Parent (more masculine qualities + ve)

Nurturing Parent (more feminine qualities - ve)

Adult (Neutral)

Free child (Neutral)

Adapted child (neutral):

Comparing Science and Human Love

Protective Parent (more masculine qualities + ve): Providing protective boundaries and rules, ensuring effective discipline, contracts, protecting the organism from outside threats etc

Nurturing Parent (more feminine qualities - ve): Offering encouragement, support, praise, growth, empathy, education, and a desire to offer yourself for the benefit of something larger

Comparing Science and Human Love

Adult (Neutral): Making sure the work gets done, planning, problem solving, day to day running of the organism

Free child (Neutral): Creativity, ability to express needs, fun, laughter, celebration, honesty

Adapted child (neutral): Responds to requests, lives within rules, loyalty, respectful behaviour, sense of fairness

Written in a down-to-earth, familiar style, Ellanson's book has a noteworthy rhythm. It leads the reader from amazing spiritual experiences to heart-stopping dangers he faced to joyful times to deep experiences of the Divine Principle, God, and the marriage tradition of the church.

Lowell artfully weaves together all of these elements to create a volume that not only fascinates but naturally educates any reader in the exciting basics of the theology of the Unification Church and the Marriage Blessing for which it is famous.

Anthem

New Song of Inspiration

The tune of the Cheon Il Guk anthem comes from the joyous and powerful melody of Holy Song number 3, “New Song of Inspiration.”

The basic melody of this holy song is preserved but it has been arranged with a more majestic, powerful and joyous rhythm to better reflect the vision of Cheon Il Guk, of creating a world of freedom, peace, unity and happiness.

Proclaim Gods Holy Word

Think of the last 2 000 years in which we just had the Bible. Now with True Parents, we have the path to Cheon Il Guk clear ahead of us, and the foundation that True Father has given us is his word.

There are three core books in preparation that are a summary of Father's words:

- the Cheon Seong Gyeong,
- Pyeonghwa Gyeong (Peace Messages) and a third
- the Champumo Gyeong, or True Parents life story

A plain-language companion to Exposition of Divine Principle

Jennifer Tanabe.

Eternal Life in the Spirit World, which I co-authored with the late Dr. Dietrich Seidel, discusses what we know about the spiritual realm starting with the thoughts of the Greek philosophers, Plato and Aristotle, and their influence on contemporary understanding.

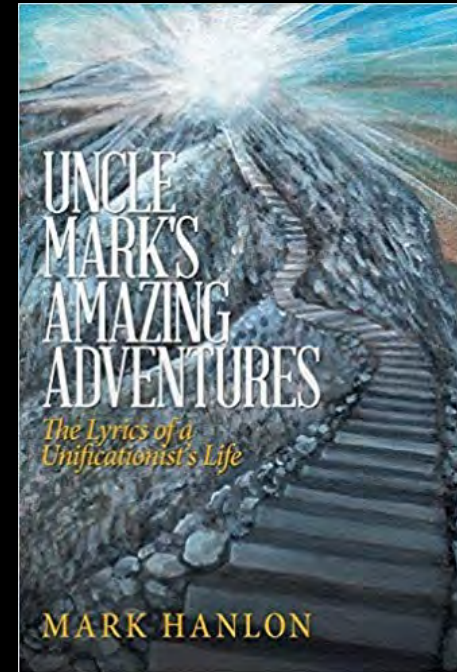

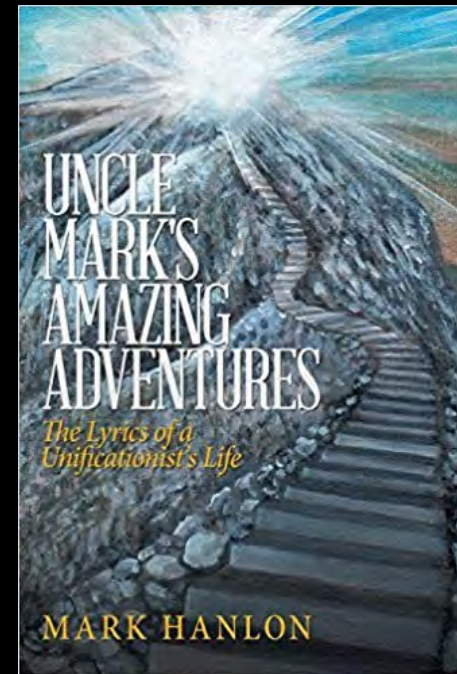

We continue with more recent sources, including Rev. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Sang Hun Lee, as well as reports from those who had near-death experiences, which all serve to make the spiritual realm seem much more substantial. - link

1951 Hungnam

David Hanlon (auth. Father), a young seaman from Medford, MA,
stood on the flight deck of the carrier
USS Leyte and watched the bombing in the distance.

The ship also housed hundreds of US Marines who later came ashore in Hungnam. Few, if any ever returned home.

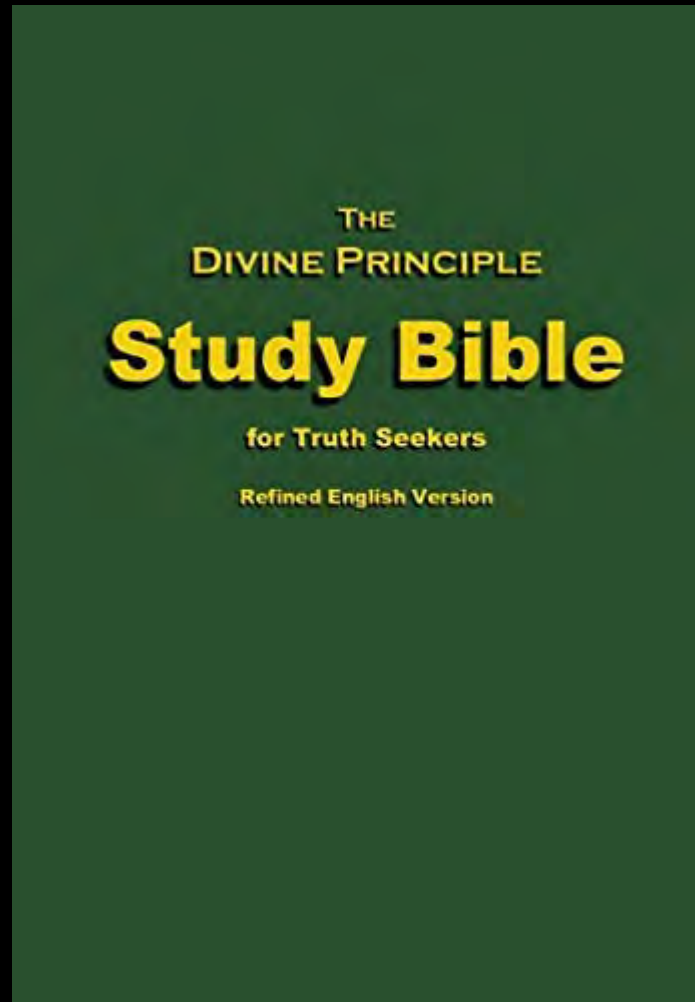

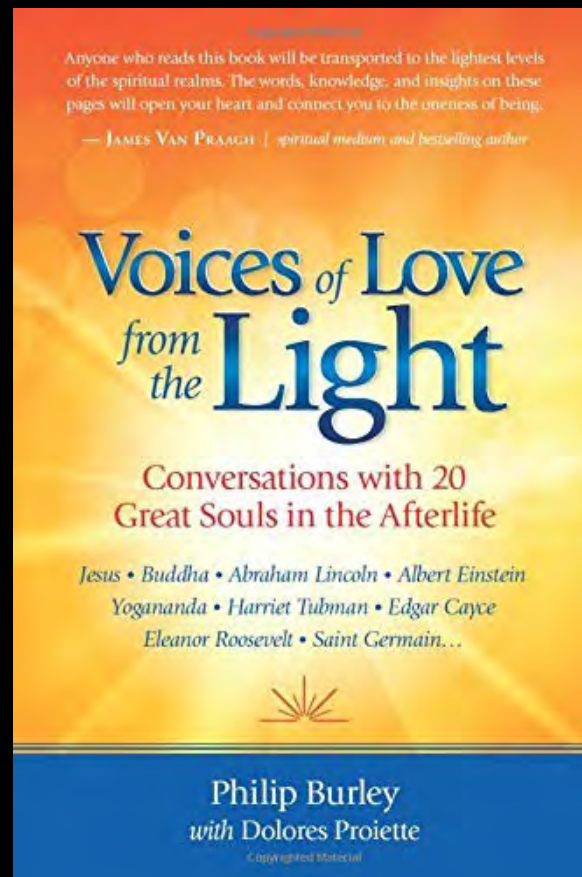

A few days after the invasion, seaman Hanlon went ashore with a friend of his on shore leave and strolled through the streets of Hungnam, believing it was safe. While the two walked together they were spotted by a lone North Korean sniper. The snipers bullet spared young David. Unfortunately his friend lost his life. My father (the young David), of course, never even heard of the Rev. Moon until I joined 26 years later (1977).

A captivating autobiographical account of Ali Mahjoub. Born as a Muslim in north Africa, he tells the story of how God worked miracles throughout his life, leading him through an unending chain of prophetic dreams and what the author coined as “divine” acts of coincidences, to meet the Unification Movement in America, in a mysterious synchronization of time, place and events.

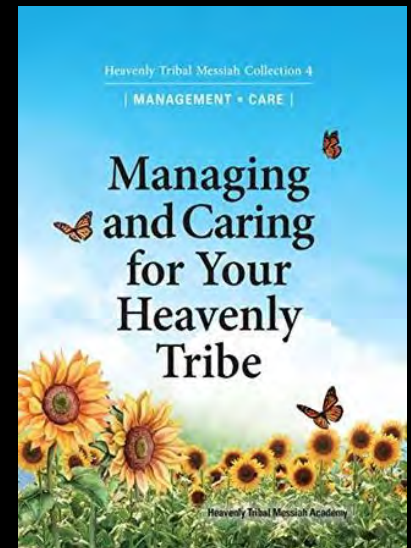

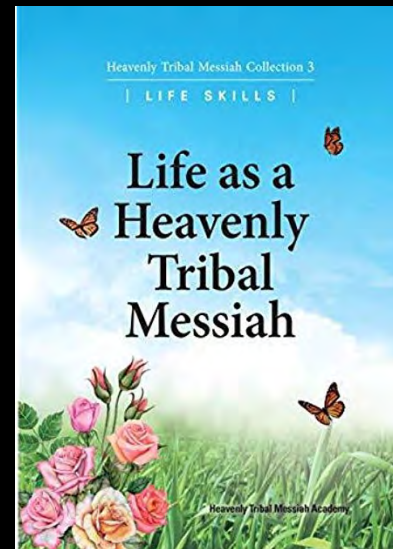

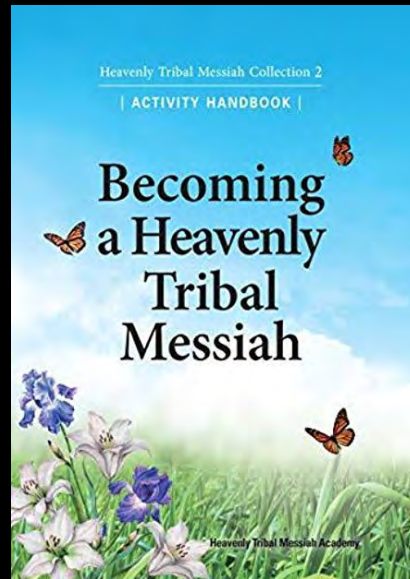

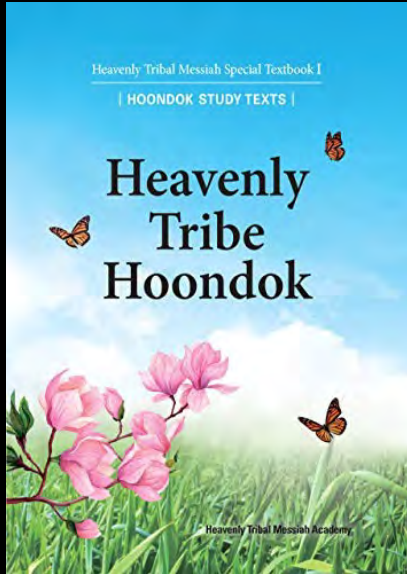

If you're still wondering how the Bible and the Divine Principle relate with each other, this unique book will help make it clear.

Would you like to know what Buddha, Jesus, and other great souls would say if they could speak today? Through the extraordinary spiritual channeling of Philip Burley, you can. Their uplifting messages will touch your heart, enlighten your mind, and better your understanding of how to live in our increasingly complex world.

HTM – Heavenly Tribal Messiah

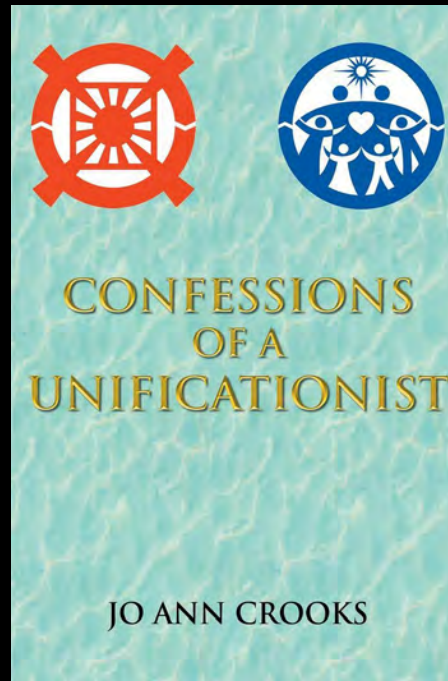

The Quest to Pass on our Religious Tradition to the Next Generation,
By Jennifer Tanabe co-authored with Dr. Rollain Nsemi Muanda, discusses the difficult challenge faced by all parents of faith in passing on their tradition to their children.

As Jesus faced his final days before his crucifixion, he offered a pray (in John 17) that all believers in the future could be perfectly one “as God and Christ are one.” Yet two thousand years later we see Christians divided by doctrine, denominational structures, political interests and contentions over moral and social values. "Realizing Jesus" strives to be the hoped-for wake-up call and attempts to shed light upon the numerous mysteries and unanswered questions that traditional doctrines have ignored or glossed over.

However, the doctrinal work of scholars and theologians is a more relative task and, like it or not, their doctrinal perspectives fluctuate with the social and cultural winds of time. What experts and theologians are considering and accommodating today could not be dreamed of a hundred years ago. What was on the front burner for theologians a hundred years ago was similarly off the table a century before that. Liberation Theology, women in the pulpit, homosexuality, and gender-neutrality are but a few contemporary examples.

Most of the past publicity about the Unification Church (Unification Movement), and Reverend Moon has been negative. Jo Ann attempts to give an understanding of what this movement is all about, based on her experiences, and as seen through her eyes, and explain what made her and thousands of American young people join this movement.

She also tries to give a basic understanding of the Divine Principle. She says, "I believe if the world knew even the basics of the Principle, we could see the way to peace on earth, as we could overcome the things that divide us now."
