In the Year of the Rabbit

Vertical and Horizontal in Gods Providence

Vertical Love and Horizontal Love;
could be expressed in several ways;

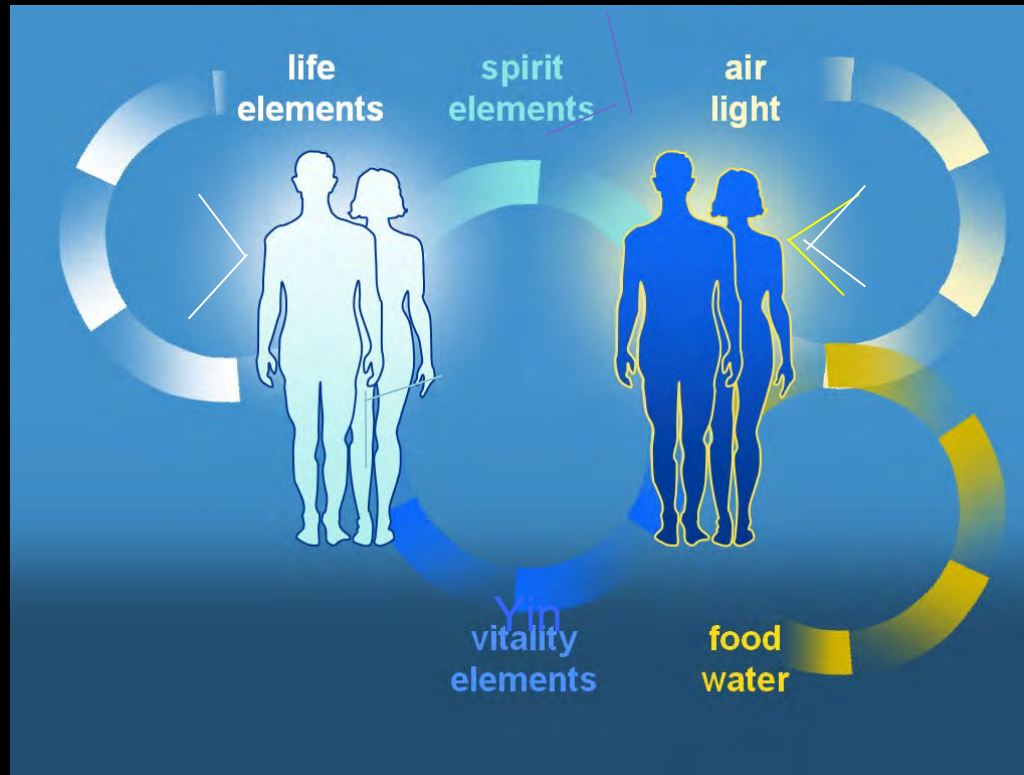

Vertical = spiritual, inspiration, prayer, revelations...

Horizontal = all physical expressions hugging, kissing your partner massaging the feet, the back...

Or/and;

Vertical = bringing your children into the love of God...HDH, moral guidance, Blessing...

Horizontal = raising a family, feeding, clothing, educating social behaviours...

Vertical; Life elements + Spirit elements (received)
+ Vitality elements (given)

Horizontal; Air, lights, food, water (received)

Vertical; All invisible to 5 Physical senses
Visible to all/some of 5 Spiritual senses

Horizontal; All visible to 5 Physical senses

(even air visible ex. through a blown up balloon, or clouds moving)

Vertical & Horizontal self

In God's ideal of creation, a person's mind and heart resides on the vertical true love axis and can position itself by relating with true love on the horizontal plane.

God's true love connects the front and back, increasing in intensity to establish the spherical and three-dimensional ideal. In this way, the mind and heart is never exhausted no matter what direction it moves. It is always ready to activate its force.

Also, that which it dislikes, or which is wrong, has no room to enter.

There is no contradiction whatsoever.

The vertical self and the horizontal self become one centering on God's true love. The reason your heart even now is in a state of conflict and contradiction is because, due to the Fall, the vertical and horizontal lines do not intersect at the ninety-degree angle necessary for true love to take root.

Put simply, without God's true love, the complete unity of the mind and body can never come about.

Whatever is received should come from the vertical to the horizontal through ninety degrees. It can be said that a person's mind is Heaven's mind. All rules should be level and equalized, since they were created in relation to and according to the way of our conscience. /SMM 1965.1.1

All of you should be aware that "I was born by having participated in the place where my father and mother loved and treasured each other the most."
You need to know that you are a participator in love.

Because you were born in the love of your parents, think that . . . . Therefore, the reason why the flag makes motion is to show a sign of love. We are all meant to live for the sake of love throughout our lives. So when we see a mother, we wave a flag of love, and when we see a father, we wave a flag of love, and we wave the flag for our brothers and sisters.

It only takes one moment for the realm of victory to be determined. Therefore, you should know that a historical realm of victory and a cosmic realm of victory are determined in one moment. One who knows the infinite value of making a moment shine and lives accordingly can become a great person, even a saint or God's son or daughter. In this way, the crux of life and death lies in the single moment.

Everything in the universe grows through three stages.
That's why there was a period of childhood for Adam and Eve. Then there was a time of adulthood.

The next step was to have been a period of perfection.
This is a principle of the universe.

Then what was Adam and Eve's childhood like?
We must start from the theory that the invisible God went through a process of creation from the invisible world to the visible world, a process in which He even held and raised a baby.

Today, individuals, families, tribes, nations, and the entire world cannot escape from the realm of time. It has been the same throughout human history. Wherever men live, there is always a goal to be accomplished. We can focus on such a goal for 10 years, 20 years, 30 years, 70 years, and, indeed, our entire life.

But the bigger our goal is, the stronger we must pledge internally. Otherwise we'll be unable to reach it. Unless we maintain an internal determination that can surpass the goal through the process called time, we'll never accomplish it.

What does religion, which guides man to the original homeland, teach? It promotes the path of living for the sake of others. The higher the religion, the stronger it emphasizes the importance of living for others.

Therefore, we must be gentle and meek. Why?

We must strive to stand in a position to lift up many people and live for their sake. Religion teaches us to sacrifice and serve. Why? Because religions must train people to fit the rules of the Kingdom of Heaven.

What is the end point of our desire? It is possessing God's love. When we talk about possessing God, unless through it we possess love more precious than my own, then God is not my God.

That's why we must possess God's love.

Indeed, if we can only possess this love, it is OK if God is not there.

When His love becomes mine and mine becomes His, the internal and the external become one for the first time. A nation based on this kind of love becomes an ideal homeland, where there is no class system of high and low.

Today, people of the world do not know that even if they occupy a prestigious position in society, their birth was spiritually sullied. They don't know that they were born with a lineage connected to God's enemy Satan and to his life and lineage.

This is a serious problem.

We were born corrupt. How terrible that birth is corrupt!
We must cry out and reverse the corruption.

Man stands in the position between God and the creation.
Therefore, we must know that man is a mediator who can be a connecting point between the spiritual world and the physical world.

There are cells in the body and mind. You know that there are the spiritual five senses and that we have a spirit body, don't you? The cells of both the internal self and external self must resonate with each other.

The spiritual being, which is our internal self that can live for eternity, and the physical being, which is our external self that can live in the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, must be able to resonate with each other,
centered on love.

One may think, "What is the difference between one ant's death and one man's death?"

The difference is due to man's being a spiritual being.

Spiritual being! Right? Lord of creation.

Even though man fell, he is still the lord of creation.

What a wonderful title!

For what reason can man become the lord of creation?

It's because he has a mind that does not age, that's eternal. All things can change. Even pure gold changes.

The color fades away. It fades because of weathering action. But the human mind does not fade or wear out.

What is the essence of God's Will? It is the perfection of the spiritual self and the physical self.

Looking at ourselves, we can set up a metaphor, saying that the past is "spiritual" and the present is "physical." The present represents the physical body, the junction of the two worlds, spiritual and physical.

Because the present position represents the satanic world, our physical body should overcome the satanic world.
