

The Sacramento Valley Family Church Heavenly Parent's Day Celebration

Charles de Watteville

January 29, 2017

The Sacramento Valley Family Church Heavenly Parent's Day Celebration was held on Sunday, January 29 during their Sunday worship service.

After a few worship songs, the pastor, Charles de Watteville, introduced the Family Pledge to the guests and all rose and recited Family Pledge to begin the community celebration of Heavenly Parent's Day.

Pastor de Watteville then shared some words about the history and meaning of Heavenly Parent's Day, and proceeded to show video excerpts from True Mother's prayers and talks from the January 28 Peace TV Weekly update.

After the pastor shared more about Heavenly Parent's Day and True Mother's recent directions, they watched the remaining Peace TV update and the FFWPU USA weekly update.

After the service, the community enjoyed a Chinese buffet lunch and performances from families and the worship team. Finally, the young people watched a movie and played board games for the rest of the afternoon.
