

November report (Western Visayas)

Sung Hwan (Angelito) Cainday

November 30, 2011

UM-Western Visayas, Regional Leader

In pursuit of its mission of bringing a world of peace and advancing the providence, the Unification Movement – Iloilo, conducted the following activities in the month of November, 2011.

First, is the outreach program in Brgy. Tabuc Suba, La Paz, Iloilo City. It was launched (in cooperation with the Barangay Office of Tabuc Suba) last October 29 and started last November 5, 2011. The outreach includes the tutorial in reading and Math for the elementary and Science and Math for the secondary. A growing number of college students are submitting themselves as volunteers. Presently, there are ten (10) college student volunteers from West Visayas State University, Western Visayas College of Science and Technology, Western Institute of Technology, and Central Philippine University. As a part of the outreach is the free Tong-il Moo Do training for the same students. The program is conducted every Saturday morning, and Monday and Saturday afternoon for the tutorial and Tong-il Moo Do training, respectively. The program will end on January 28, 2012 as agreed by the UPF coordinator and The Punong Barangay of Tabuc Suba.

Another activity is the student fellowship every Wednesday afternoon in the Iloilo Center. The fellowship was first held last November 3, the first Wednesday of the month. The fellowship is intended for the old members of W-CARP and, also, to witness new student members.

A 3-day Divine Principle Seminar was conducted at the Regional Training Center last Nov. 25- 27 attended by 11 participants from different provinces in the region. Mr.Dionesio Arcenas, Mr.Glenn Halipa and Mr.Michael Muega, from Iloilo Center, were the lecturers of the said seminar. It was a part of monthly seminar activity of the UM-Wester Visayas.

Aside from the monthly seminar are the series of seminar conducted every Saturday in the Iloilo Center.

Last Nov. 22 was the election of the officers of UPF in Brgy. Malublub, Badiangan, Iloilo. It was the follow-up activity of the Tribal Messiahship of Mrs. Marievic Mizushima last summer 2011. 30 members attended the election. The purpose of election of the UPF officers is the establishment of a cooperative. The election was attended by Mrs. Rosela Cadile (CBF) and Iloilo Center Leader Mr. Jimson Muega as the UPF Regional office representatives. Mrs. Riza Tan was elected as the president of the cooperative.

There will be a 2-day meeting for the fulltime members of the movement on December 2-3, 2011 as an evaluation on the past month's accomplishments.

A Narrative Report on the Bacolod Two 1-Day EDP Seminars on November 19 and 16

A total of 10 participants attended the recently concluded two 1-Day Divine Principle seminars held at UM-Bacolod Center last November 19 and 26, 2011 – five participants for each day.

The participants were student, graduate student, media man, and old member who need to revive his connection to the True Parents.

The lecture was organized by Carlo Niño P. Bartolo, the Center leader and was presented by Ramil Hangor. The lecture presentation was done in code switching in English, Filipino, and Hiligaynon. The participants had much realization and reflection. They were also willing to attend higher seminars and trainings.

After the lecture, a video introducing the founder of the movement was shown.

Two of the participants – Warren Galanza and Moses Fuentes decide to become fulltime members under the leadership of Carlo Niño Bartolo.

After the lecture was the commemorative photo taking and snacks.

A Narrative Report on the Bacolod Sunday EDP Series Lecture

Family members and their workers attended the EDP series lectures. The lecture series was scheduled every Sunday afternoon at the place of Kuya Eddie Panuncia at Brgy. Tangub, Bacolod City.

The lecture was organized by Carlo Niño P. Bartolo, the Bacolod Center leader and was presented by Ramil Hangor. The lecture presentation was done in code switching in English, Filipino, and Hiligaynon. The participants, young and old give some reflection after the lecture. After every lecture were talks about their situations and problems and about the news in the church.
