James Coleman Seunghwa Ceremony

Shota Iwasaki
April 23, 2015

James Coleman was our beloved brother from Liberia who experienced a sudden stroke and passed Sunday, April 19th, 12:30pm at a nearby hospital. He was an excellent lecturer and lectured in Georgia and Michigan reaching out to members and ministers alike. He moved to Philadelphia 2 years ago attending our local services. Services will be held Friday, May 1st in Philadelphia. A viewing will be held from 6pm, and the Seunghwa ceremony at 7pm.

Turay Memorial Funeral Chapel
2534 N. 22nd St.
Philadelphia, PA 19132

Special Donation Request

We want to do our best to prepare a memorable and respectful service to honor our dear brother. He had no immediate family in the area, and those close to him are seeking support of $100-$200 donations. These larger amounts will be able to fully cover the costs of the service ($5,500). Visit Youcaring.com to make an electronic contribution. Checks can be made out to: Harris Mulbah
1910 Garrett Road
Lansdowne, PA 19050
Please reflect and see if there is an amount you will be able to give. Thank you, James, for your years of service.
