

WFWP USA: The World Needs People Like You - People of Heart and Purpose

Dear,

In times like these, the world needs true women more than ever - women who remain grounded in grace, dignity, love, and compassion even when the path is uncertain; women who do not shrink back when challenged, but stand firm in truth while embracing others without judgment. In the face of the current challenges surrounding WFWP Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han (Mother Han), this calling feels more urgent and more meaningful than ever.

At Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP), we are committed to awakening that strength and heart in women across our nation and beyond.

Your membership makes this possible. Because of our Peacebuilder members, we are reaching women in powerful, transformative ways:

Through our Awaken Retreats, women are discovering healing, clarity, and renewed purpose. From 2 national gatherings to 7 local one-day retreats in the past two years, participants are rediscovering their value, healing their hearts, and connecting to God's motherly love. Your membership helps us bring this life-changing experience to even more women - helping them connect with their divine femininity, transform their hearts, and grow into integrated, confident leaders.

Through our Global Women's Peace Network, we host initiatives like the HerStory Award and the Bridge of Peace, which uplift women leaders and foster reconciliation and unity in communities nationwide. This year, we are excited to expand the impact of these programs through collaboration with Universal Peace Federation (UPF) and American Clergy Leadership Conference (ACLC) as part of the Peace Starts with Me Alliance - bringing women and men together to build a culture of peace rooted in mutual respect and partnership.

Your membership is not just a formality - it is the foundation that allows these programs to continue, grow, and reach more communities. It is your partnership that helps awaken women, heal relationships, and inspire a movement of peace that begins in the heart and expands outward.

Please renew your membership or become a new member today. Stand with women of courage. Invest in the next generation of peacemakers. Together, we can continue to uplift women, strengthen families, and build lasting peace - starting now.
