

WFWP USA: Empower a Future Through Education - Join WFWP

Dear,

What does it feel like to witness hope rising from the most challenging circumstances?

In November 2025, seven volunteers from across the U.S. joined WFWP USA on our first-ever Schools of Africa Service Trip to Kigali, Rwanda. They visited the New Hope Technical Institute, a vocational school where young people facing poverty and hardship are gaining skills, confidence, and a renewed sense of possibility. From a deeply moving visit to the Kigali Genocide Memorial to joyful connections with students learning tailoring, culinary arts, and hairdressing, the journey revealed resilience, courage, and the transformative power of education.

One of the most striking moments came when volunteers visited students' homes, seeing firsthand the difficult conditions many families endure. Yet, even in these circumstances, students spoke with determination about their dreams, gratitude for educational opportunities, and hope for the future. These experiences left the team inspired, humbled, and committed to supporting a program that changes lives, one student at a time.

This is what it means to be part of WFWP. As a member, you join a network of women who are creating real impact—mentoring, empowering, and uplifting the next generation through education, leadership, and sisterhood. Your membership helps sustain programs like Schools of Africa, ensuring that young people across the world have a chance to rise, thrive, and contribute to a brighter tomorrow.

Step into this movement with us. Walk alongside women and students whose lives are being transformed and be part of something bigger than yourself.

Be part of something bigger. Walk this path with us.
