

WFWP USA: Awaken: In Full Bloom - Early-Bird Registration Now Open

Katarina Connery
June 19, 2026

Dear,

Every year women gather at the Awaken Retreat to explore what it truly means to be a woman from the inside out, grounded in a sense of divine worth and genuine connection with each other.

Women have left the retreat with new language for God's love, new tenderness toward themselves, and new courage for the road ahead.

We explore what it means to live as a woman in full expression. Not performing, not striving, not waiting for permission, but blooming radiantly, exactly as we were made to.

Over the course of the weekend, participants will:

- Reconnect with Heavenly Mother and the divine feminine, continuing to discover what it means that we are made in Her image
- Explore the seasons of a woman's life with the understanding that we are never static, and that every season holds its own beauty and power
- Look honestly at the God-given feminine strengths that the world often overlooks, and reclaim them as gifts rather than limitations
- Share space, wisdom, and laughter with women as a united sisterhood

Each day will include meaningful sessions, guided conversations where your voice and experience matter, and creative breakout experiences: moments of art, reflection, wellness, and joy. Whether you are joining us for the first time or returning, you are welcome exactly as you are, in whatever season you find yourself, and in whatever state your heart has arrived.

Come and Bloom!

Register by November 19 to receive our Early-Bird discount!

This retreat is open to all women ages 18 and up, childcare will be provided if needed. If you're receiving this invite as one of our many supporting gentlemen, please feel free to forward to a woman you know would enjoy this retreat.

If you need financial assistance, there are sponsorships available to partially cover costs of attending. Visit the registration page to learn more about how to apply.

We are delighted to invite you to the Awaken Retreat, an inspiring and transformative program hosted by WFWP Westchester. This retreat is dedicated to awakening women to their true value and fostering a community of empowered, conscious, and connected individuals.

The Awaken Retreat is designed to provide a nurturing space where women can explore their inner strengths, develop a deeper understanding of their unique value, and connect with other like-minded individuals. Through a series of interactive workshops, enlightening keynote speeches, and introspective activities, participants will be guided on a journey of self-discovery and empowerment.

This retreat is open for all women, no matter their level of familiarity with WFWP. We encourage WFWP members to invite friends and guests to this retreat and together witness the incredible transformations that are bound to unfold.
