Vienna, 7th March 2018

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

“Peace starts with me”

That's the motto of our Festival on 29th April 2018 at the Vienna Stadthalle.

At a time when we in Europe are increasingly confronted with a clash of cultures and worldviews, the question is more urgent than ever: “Where do we go from here?”

The solution to our conflict-laden culture begins with a quiet revolution inside each and every one of us. That's the message Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon wants to transmit to us - peace begins within me. She reminds us all that there is more to us, than merely what divides us. She encourages us to come together as brothers and sisters, and to take a mutual step towards peace.

As someone who has experienced the horrors of war and refugee-life in her own childhood, the peaceful reunification of her divided homeland, Korea, is of particular concern to her. In addition, she has launched peace initiatives around the world, that have urged hostile ethnic groups and cultures to embark on reconciliation paths.

Music and dance often contribute more to reconciliation and peace-building than talking and negotiating. Therefore, the performances of "Attraction" (Hungarian Shadow-Dance Group), the "Longfield Gospel Choir" and that of other artists will be given a central role at this event. You are invited to participate in this Festival. Celebrate with us, your friends and your family!

Tickets can be purchased through the ticket office of the Stadthalle or through a local representative of the Family Federation.
