

Peace Queen Cup Fishing Tournament

Branch Gaarder
October 9, 2018

The Peace Queen Cup is a fishing tournament on the Hudson River, dedicated to raising awareness to the Peace Starts with Me movement, including the upcoming rally at Nassau Coliseum in New York.

It will take place over the month of October, each Saturday and Sunday. Half of the proceeds will be awarded to the participant who catches the biggest striped bass. The remaining proceeds will be used to support Peace Starts with Me initiatives.

The Tournament fee is $40 per person. Each spot on the boat is $95 per person. Two boats will be available each day with up to 6 people per boat.
