

CARP South Africa: Becoming Owner of the Vision

Jean Augustin Ghomsi
October 17, 2015

CARP South Africa hosted a workshop on campus of the University of Limpopo, on October 17, 2015 to educate students and boost membership, aiming for lasting peace.

- CARP at the University of Limpopo hosted a workshop on campus to educate students and boost membership, aiming for lasting peace.
- The topic: Becoming the Owner of the Vision.
- Welcoming remarks given by Miss. Itumeleng Mothapo (President of CARP University of Limpopo)
- There were 85 participants in total. 3 delegates from Youth Federation national headquarters, University of Limpopo CARP executive members as well as other university students. Mr. Douglas Mailula of YFWP/RSA spoke about the law of correlativity; and give and receive.
- Main Speaker Mr. Emerald Ndonga (Secretary General of YFWP) presented: The Vision and Mission of CARP and YFWP. He also stressed the importance of students receiving the education of heart, education of the norm and dominion.
- Miss. Lebone Mphahlele (Financial Manager & Event planner of CARP University of Limpopo Giving a talk and facilitating the motivation speech section
- Mr. Siphon Moagi (Public Relations Manager of YFWP South Africa) motivating the students
- A big thanks to Pick n Pay Mall of the North who sponsored bread for the occasion We hope to have them as one of the official sponsors of YFWP