On June 10, WFWP Ukraine in cooperation with a number of state institutions and public organizations of a military-patriotic orientation supported an event for children aged 10 to 14 from Kyiv lyceums and schools.

For the International Children's Day, practical training was organized for them under the project "Learn to protect, defend and win, take responsibility for yourself and those around you" of the "Train Like a Soldier" program. The event was held under the patronage of the Department of Youth and Sports of the Kyiv City State Administration.

Young people studied initial special tactical training according to NATO standards, tactical medicine, hand-to-hand combat skills from experienced instructors.

Member of the board of the National Council of Women of Ukraine and nominee of WFWP "Woman of the Year" Tetyana Tarasova reminded them of the role of Ukrainian women who cheer for the life of every defender, volunteer, and child, and help bring the victory of Ukraine closer.
