“How to Form Right Opinion”

On December 13 in CARP of Romania had a weekly meeting, this time on the theme “How to Form Right Opinion”. Five guests participated. As young people enthusiastic about life it is normal to have a belief system and many opinions about all kind of subjects, opinions that shape our life. Many people need to realize that their opinions have consequences. Therefore, when we argue about a certain matter it is important for us to know what we are saying and that we did the work necessary to hold the right information.

Advanced 2-Day Divine Principle Seminar

On December 16-17 in an advanced 2-day Divine Principle seminar was held for 7 CARP members. All the Divine Principle lectures were given by Romania national leader Mr. Jeong. Content was covering the Principle of Creation, Human Fall and Principle of Restoration which is the core of Divine Principle. Mr. Jeong gave us these precious message with all his heart and passion, therefore the Divine Principle lecture time was so interactive and meaningful.

In the afternoon we organized 'Happy Day' with challenging Action Task. We made 2 teams and we did as competition to see which team can create better team unity and harmony.

In the evening we had sharing time. We could invite Mr. Jeong and we could ask a lot of questions. Especially our main point was 'How can we apply this Principle in our daily life'. All the CARP members were asking questions in order to understand better this life principles which are given by God for us to guide us to right way.
