Making the Most of Marriage
Thursday, November 26, 2020 8:30 PM CET
Speaker: Margoth Tove Kalstad
Topic: The Paradoxical Theory of Change

Hi everyone,

We hope you are all well.

We are happy to share the recording of our last meeting and also announce our next event.

About our speaker:

Margoth Tove Kalstad is from Norway, has a bachelor in journalism and worked as an editor for 15 years until she decided to work more in contact with people. She studied Gestalt Therapy in 2008 and has been practicing it since 2013.

She and her husband have 2 kids, 2 grandkids and a third on the way. She is currently pursuing a Master's degree in pastoral care.

As usual after the main talk we will split into discussion groups: the groups are made of 5-7 people, and we try our best to put together couples of similar circumstances (e.g. newly Blessed Couples / Blessed Couples with young children / Blessed Couples with adult children).

If you are new to MMM and have never registered before, please fill out this registration form, so that we know in which discussion group to put you:

Feel free to share this information with any blessed couple you think might be interested. More details to come soon, including our speaker's introduction video. We look forward to seeing you there!
