Spiritual or religious education is the process through which a child grows to achieve spiritual maturity. A spiritually mature person is someone who is in touch with God's love, is a good member of the family as well as their community, society, nation and world, and is someone who has developed his or her creative potential. Whether we are a parent, a Sunday School teacher, a youth leader or a caring member of the church community, we all have a hand in supporting this process of growth.

Sign up today for a webinar on "Religious Education for our Children and Youth" presented by Myrna Lapres. The webinar will be held on Thursday, October 9, 2014 at 9:00 p.m.

EDT and hosted by the national Blessing & Family Ministry. The purpose of the webinar is to understand how Sunday School teachers, educators and parents provide a foundation of learning about God, the history of God through the Bible, True Parents, our church and each individual's own unique value.

From the webinar, attendees will gain: 1) a clear understanding of their role as Sunday School teacher/educator, 2) how to prepare for lessons, 3) ways to make lessons engaging and to create connection with the students, and 4) online resources and curriculum suggestions.

The webinar will also include practical tips for classroom management and Myrna will share her inspiration and knowledge from her years of working with children and youth.

Myrna Lapres has been blessed to Michael Lapres for 32 years. They have three sons who are all eagle scouts: Daniel (26), David (24) and Matthew (22). Myrna has been a Sunday School teacher for 24 years and has been the Sunday School director of the Bay Area Family Church (BAFC) for 14+ years. In addition, Myrna is the assistant pastor of the BAFC, teaches kindergarten at the Principled Academy and has been involved with youth ministry, workshops for youth and scouting programs for many years. One of her favorite sayings: "I touch the future, I teach!" gives her life purpose and meaning.
