

Belarus, Minsk. Happy Families Festival

Vitaly Maksimov - October 29, 2017

On the initiative of the public association "World of the Family" and the Universal Peace Federation, about 100 people of different ages participated in the "Happy Families Festival" on October 29 in Minsk, Belarus.

At the beginning of the meeting a musical collage of family photos with quotes about the role of the family and the responsibility of its members was introduced to guests. Chairman of the Universal Peace Federation in Belarus, Vitaly Maksimov talked to participants about the Federation, values of family and marriage. Then the guests actively joined a family game "Imaginary" and received sweet prizes.

Within the framework of the festival a lecture was held on the value of games and how the game can strengthen family ties. After explanation about an importance of teamwork and a role of the spiritual world in our life everyone played in the traditional Korean game Yut.
