

My Spiritual experience with Mother

Well, Rev Dunkley encouraged us to share our experiences. I didn't expect that it will happen so naturally with me. But my spiritual eyes opened all of a sudden when I saw videos and pictures of Mother's recent visit in the USA. (I'm living in the Philippines, so I could see only pictures.) That very moment I had goose bumps all over my body.. I just saw that Mother is a Living Holy Spirit of God. Absolute perfect embodiment of God's love...

Since that day the main challenge and goal for me has been to be able to become one with Mother. In my life I have been going through incredible struggles and battles for that past year.. But I keep offering devotions to be able to see the way of growth.

Recently after drinking Holy Wine again things started happening that brought me into deep sincere prayers...

What I can say now - it's true incredible beautiful a completely different world had been opened for us. God and The spiritual world wants to come to resonance with us in our daily life. It will depend on our effort to keep growing and discovering and allow ourselves to be reborn and transformed to inherit all the things opened for us.
